With great anticipation, in early September 2002, we opened St. Andrew's College's 104th school year in the Ketchum Auditorium with a packed student assembly of 548 boys. The year was to be uniquely challenging for several reasons; the double graduating Class of 2003; the largest student enrollment in the school's history; the Campus Master Plan construction projects, portable classrooms, and the launch of the wireless laptop program. (faculty only 2002/03 )

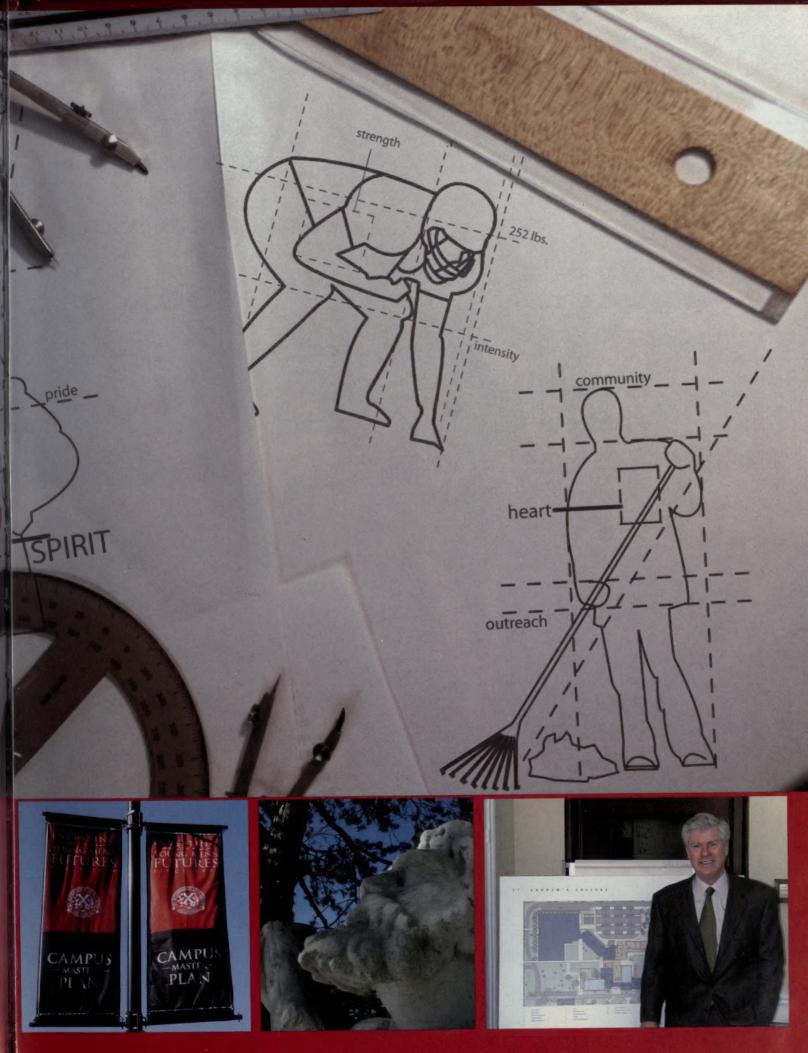

Appropriately, the Prefects chose the theme of "Spirit" for the school year, a trait that is in abundance at S.A.C. Often defined as " t vital essence or animating force in man ", and associated with vivacity or energy, the term describes a state of mind or mood. It is often connected with loyalty or devotion – in this case to the school. School "Spirit" was particularly evident at this year's Homecoming, Terry Fox Run, MacPherson Hockey Tournament, "Oklahoma", special Tuesday Chapel services, spirit days, sports events, and Focus. The school colours of red & white were proudly displayed at school and community events. In spite of operating in cramped and noisy quarters, through a brutally cold and long winter, SAC Spirit prevailed. The pictures and stories that follow are testimonials to a great year!

The Review is like no other publication that the school creates. It's essentially a historical document that is created by student and staff, both inside the classroom and outside. It is a collaboration between writers, photographers and editions, who all arrive in September with little or no knowledge of what commitment is needed or expected. And it's always more than ever planned for! It needs the co-operation of coaches and staff who provide documentation about seasons and events and the dedicated single mindedness of the faculty advisors, Mrs. R. Berman and Mr. S. Kimmerer to chase, collect, cull and gather this information

This years publication is another step forward in the pursuit of producing a first class document. The editors, Derek Toms and Mike Lin were instrumental in helping create the theme and layout style of this publication. The Communications course - TGJ3M-01 - created most of the sports pages and many of the special events pages as well. Cody Biggings, Chris Bromley, Ricky Reininger, J.P. Suddaby, Alex McNabb, and Erik Bornstein need to be singled out for their contribution. While there are always mistakes with a project like this, ( please be forgiving) we hope this publication reflects the school year as it was - one of change and progress.

This is was a challenging school year, with two graduating classes, construction, and various changes around the school. This year's Prefects managed to overome such challenges and live up to the year's theme: Spirit. It was a truly unique year in St. Andrew's College history, with the most amount of prefects ever - twenty. This year's prefects used their large numbers to their advantage, organizing events on a grander scale than previous years. They were busy throughout the entire year, planning events such as Homecoming, semi-formals, Spirit Week, Mayfest, the Associate Press Club outings, and the Cadet Formal. The bar was raised considerably as well in their t-shirt production, and a new Grads' Common Room was also created for the graduates of the double cohort. Spirit Week, another new introduction to the school, raised eyebrows and brought smiles to the faces of the students with the theme of the week: Streaking. In conclusion, 2002-03 was a succesful year for the school and its prefect body. The Prefects would like to thank all those who aided us in our endavours throughout the year. Special thanks should go out to: Mr. Staunton, Mr. Josselyn, Mrs. Petri, Mrs. Perrier, Mr. Hillick, the Kitchen Staff, the Janitorial staff, Mr. Dawson, Mr. Shrimpton, the parents, and the graduating class for their continuous support. Thank you for a great year. To the Prefects of next year: Good luck, and take care of our school!

or two days the graduating class of 2003 headed off to Camp Robin Hood to develop and build leadership skills and potential amongst each other as well as a sense of trust with their fellow classmates.

Through out the day a group of eleven students or so, led by one of our 2003 Prefects would rotate between different activities all aimed at teaching and extracting different leadership skills. Each group would work together as a team to complete a task or challenge presented to them. In order to complete these challenges all members of the team had to get involved and each member was encouraged to develop their own leadership potential.

On top of group activities there was also a chance to go swimming and watch as guy's flipped and twisted off the super springy diving board, play Frisbee, try archery, rock climb on an indoor wall and enjoy lunch and a show while a crazy few went up on stage and sang along to the music.

These two days were a great way to start the year, make some new friends and spend time with old ones. We were also able to meet some of the new boys and introduce them to the graduating class of 2003, who will become the potential leaders of tomorrow.

3rd Annual Terry Fox Run - On a drizzly day on September 29th, St. Andrew's College took place in it's 3rd Annual Terry Fox Run for cancer research, organised by the Outreach Committee. Although the weather was tough, all of the staff and students showed tremendous spirit throughout the race. Everyone raised pledges and ran for a worthy cause sporting the red and white school colours. Overall, the school raised approximately $8000 for the cause. Thanks is extended to everyone involved from the Terry Fox Foundation.

Walking on the lower fields prior to my 12:30 kick off, I came across two older gentlemen with name tags. Forgive me, for at this point in time I cannot recollect what was written on the tags but I can remember what they said. "Nice legs son. What team is fortunate enough to wear kilt on uch a fine morning?" He was right you know, it was a fine morning. The forecast had been cold, out in contrast to the weather man's opinion the day was crisp and comfortable. You could cel victory everywhere. "First Soccer Sir. We've got a game today against De La Salle. The kilts are for show." "I see you're a Prefect as well. I don't suppose you still have a cane. He turned to his companion. "Remember Bill. Remember back in '58 when we had the power. We used to skip out of class 'cause nobody cared about us Prefects. I used to find kids who were messin' about or out of line and give 'em hell." If it wasn't for Mr. Scoular's book Not an Ordinary Place I would 've thought these two guys had lost their marbles. That was just it though. This was what Homecoming was all about. Old boys coming back and reliving their St. Andrew's career through us current students. These two gentlemen from the class of '58, who had maintained their friendship to the current day, became school chums once again thanks to Homecoming 2002. J.P. Suddaby

99th Annual

As a time honoured tradition since 1903, the Cross Country Run at St. Andrew's has allowed students to show their school spirit as they cover a grueling 2.0/3.5km run only to be rewarded by a four day break and a well deserved Thanksgiving dinner. Although chilly, this year had perfect conditions for the race, and proved to be exciting for the record number of students (and staff) who participated. Congratulations to all!

A taplace that's as busy as St.Andrew's College, it isn't often that we have a chance to stop and reflect. However, twice this year the school took a break to remember those that have lost their lives. On Remembrance Day a special chapel ceremony was held to think back on the Andreans that made the ultimate sacrifice to secure freedom in World Wars I and II. As well, a Prayer Circle was held with the entire St.Andrew's community to recall the tragic events of the September 11th attacks on their one year anniversary. Students and teachers alike found solace in the coming together of the school. - Alex McNabb

Middle School Arts Day November 13, 2002

The Middle School students were involved in an Arts Day on November 13, 2002 when visiting artists came to the school and taught the boys various different mediums and techniques. It was an exciting day for all with activities ranging from clay sculpture to digital photography to watercolour painting. It was an extremely successful event and we hope to make it a tradition at the school. The boy's favorite activity was the "Messy Hands" art bus!

A lot of people asked me why I was involved in the production of Oklahoma. My response never wavered - It was my last chance. The last kick at the can. The last time I would work on a professional production at St.Andrew's College. People think that high school performances can't be very good. What William Scoular has done at our school is taken prep-school students and transformed them into outstanding actors. Most students who get involved in the program don't realize the talent that lies within them. With the help of Mr. Scoular and his professional team of musicians and choreographers, anything becomes possible.

With all this said, I spent about 30 hours a week for ten weeks just to be in 3 scenes. I go to school, I go play soccer or hockey, and then I go to play practice until 10:00pm (sometimes later). Why would I do this? I love acting. I love the idea of transforming into somebody else just a little bit everyday. I get to step out of my skin, my problems and get swept away to animaginary place.

The cast this year was one of a kind. Mr. Scoular pulled out all of the stops and found an extraordinary actress to play the role of Laurie. Jarryd Stock mastered the role of Curly and became the backbone of the production. He was in almost every scene singing, dancing, and wowing the audience. Stuart Manchee played the role of Judd and created one of themost convincing characters I've ever scene. Peggy Reininger was once again an intricate part of the costume selection, tailoring, and organisation. On top of that she was a principle character in the production.

Oklahoma was one of those productions that touched the audience and moved them back in time to a place where the world was a simple place. On a certain level, the production parallels all of the things that are currently going on in the world. It is a special play that reminds us of the important things in life. An S.A.C. dramatic production is a worthwhile experience that I would recommend to any up and coming Andreans.

On the field at one point this year we had won 16 straight football games without a loss and were 26 wins 4 losses and 1 tie over the previous four years. We have won Championships and had our share of tough losses.

More then the success on the field, football had played a very key role in the development of character, leadership, spirit and heart. These are some of the most cherished qualities as young men attempt to achieve the greatest of all compliments.... that of being considered the ideal Andrean. The coaches are very pleased that beyond the many wins and few losses contributing to the development of "The Complete Man" Is Still our central goal.

We began in training camp and the boys demonstrated that above all else on team was going to out work this group of young men.

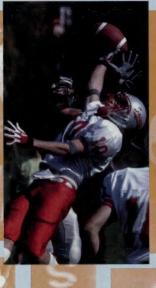

In our first HUGE test after only nine practices we went to Cincinnati to play a team one month and four weeks into their season. After getting down early, and I might add often, we showed tremendous commitment and resolve to not give up and we scrapped through the final half with our heads held high.

In the regular season the highlights were..... Demolishing UCC 31-13 and having a very easy time of it. The defence holding, according to the Toronto Star, "The best Running Back in Ontario" to negative yardage.

Week two was homecoming and the De La Salle a very tough battle and a great overtime victory of 38-24. Highlights of this game were Chris MacFarlane's three touchdowns, Jordan Ross's Huge hit on the De La Salle Fullback and Jeff Johnstone emerging from out of the shadow of Michael Faulds to throw for over 400 yards and four touchdown passes. Week three and four saw lopsided victories over Ridley and TCS and a restlessness among the team because things were getting too easy. In each of those games we were up by 21 or more points at the half. The semi-finals saw a return of the enthusiasm and energy of seasons past and we played some of our best football dismantling Ridley 49-7.

The finals arrived and confidence was high. It is a game that graduating players will want to forget, one of those games you replay in your head a thousand times. In the end we simply didn't make the plays necessary to win and we went down to defeat 14 - 12.

When teams get accustomed to winning, losses of this nature take a huge toll, but it is only because of the great success that this program has enjoyed that a loss like this stings so much.

Overall the team committed itself physically, grew as a football team and learned some very difficult lessons about integrity and being true to the most important thing: Commitment to the concept of team. -Mr.C. Shrimpton Esq.

The season opened the way it was to continue with a 33-7 domination of UCC. We met them again in the semi-finals where the result was 33-0: a fitting testimony to the strength of this year's defense. The big hits of Dumani Ross were overwhelmed only by the pit-bull aggression of inside linebackers Mike Greco and Charlie Abbot. Half of our games were defensive shutouts, while only St. Mike's managed to score more than one touchdown against us.

Offensively we were blessed with a superb quarterback in Rob MacKay whose arm is going to be a formidable weapon at First next season. The speed of his passes meant that the receiver corps' hardest job was often hanging onto the ball.

Riddell

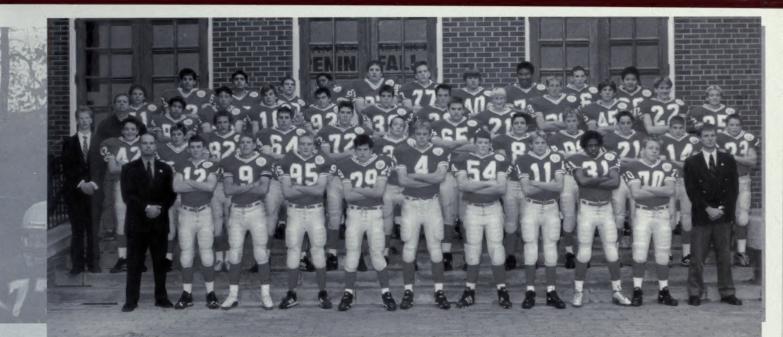

Anton and Karl were obvious leaders on the field, but returnee Brian Daley had a fantastic final game while MattSuddaby showed impressive improvement throughout the season. Scott Johnstone was both a top receiver and a superb quarterback who has already got the coaches dreaming of next season. If only we can figure out a way for him to throw to himself...

Once again we faced St. Mikes in the finals and, despite a fair margin on the scoreboard, the game was actually close with most of the points coming from big plays or big errors. Despite being the only team to score two TD's on the awesome St. Mike's squad we made too many errors to be in the game at the end – but a second consecutive Finalist finish with 5-2 record is only one win away from where we want to be.

It was an exciting end to an outstanding season in which 44 young men made a huge commitment to the development of their skills and the continuation of one of the best school football programs in this province. Best of luck to those who are going up to the 1st Team level next year, meanwhile for returnees we know we already have the nucleus of another outstanding team.

o score? - Vince Lombardi

Under normal circumstances, I would discard our 2002-2003 soccer season. In the Ridley Early Bird, we had a premature exit not making it out of the round robin. During the season, we were outmatched by our rivals Ridley College and our perfect record was shattered. Our National Tournament in Vancouver was a bust, losing to Ridley in the quarterfinals. In the CISAA finals we were defeated by shady refereeing and eventually penalty kicks. The championship went to our nemesis, Ridley. As captain, I led my team to victory in many battles. However, St. Andrew's had lost the war.

f winning isn't everything, then why do they keep score?

Before this season, First Soccer used to be about winning. In fact, winning was expected and losing wasn't tolerated. Should a soccer player therefore hang his head in defeat? Normally, I would be so devastated over a championship loss I wouldn't talk for a few days, maybe weeks. But this was not an ordinary season. My head has never been higher. Every test, every challenge was met with an unparalleled effort from 16 men. These men did not play for themselves, or even for their team, they played for the name on their jersey. They bled because they believed in themselves and in their school. After the repercussions of losing two players in Vancouver set in, First Soccer could've packed it in and called it quits. Yet everyone in the dressing room knew that St. Andrew's wasn't about quitting. If St. Andrew's doesn't quit, then wearing that jersey means no matter what, anything less than 100% from everyone on the field is unacceptable. First Soccer stepped it up a notch.

We marched our way to the finals of CISAA. Two weeks had been devoted to the match against Ridley. The final would not disappoint. This time, our coaches had out-thought the Ridley opponent and S.A.C. was more than prepared to do battle. For 90 minutes, every St. Andrew's player was winning his own little battle against his marker. We were winning 1-0 and First Soccer was doing everything in their power to stay on top.

1st Soccer

MVP, Patrick McGrath, put his body on the line like he always did and displayed effort that only lifted the play of his teammates. MIP, David Nudds, made the most spectacular save ever seen in my four years of high-school soccer. Yet, somehow, someway, in the 94th minute the referee was able to award a freekick and sure enough, Ridley found a way to put it in the back of the net. Overtime settled nothing and penalty kicks are a tough way to go down. Not many games are lost with nobody to blame.

Patrick McGrath left these words for First Soccer. "It was a season that revealed our true character, our tenacious desire to win. It was a season marked by disappointment and loss, yet we never, ever gave up. As a team we were never closer, we all supported each other, we all won together, all unfortunately lost together. It was really the perfect season." Our team may not have won, but the 2002-2003 soccer season was truly perfect. Many thanks go to the coaches and to Hugh. I will forever hear the bagpipes.

The Junior Varsity Soccer team had a challenging and rewarding season this fall. Starting with 40 players, the team was very competitive in its selection of who would remain on the pitch for the season. The early bird tournament looked very favourable with 2 wins, and the refs commented on our ability to field three almost completely different tier 2 teams throughout the day. Many players certainly had talent and ability and assistant coach Mr Ainsworth and I struggled through the process of choosing the right combination, resulting in the final JV team of twenty. Highlights of the year included our match against Holy Trinity School. Down 3-1 at the half, some aggressive mid-field work and incredible headers from our forwards brought us back to a 3-3 tie in the last few minutes to end the game. By mid way through the season we had found our rhythm and celebrated three consecutive wins against Lakefield, Pickering College whom we beat 6 - 3, and TCS with a 6 - 1 thrashing. We entered the semi-finals with 4 wins, 2 ties and 2 losses. The semi-final match was held at UCC. We were concerned about the game as we had tied them atour Homecoming earlier in the season, but we were confident that our game had been greatly refined since our first battle. The game was extremely well played by both teams, with a nil score at the half. Dominating the play throughout the second half though, we were confident that it was just moments before we would be in the lead. Unfortunately, a penalty was called unexpectedly in the 75th minute of play and that spelled the end for us. A well placed penalty kick brought an exciting season to a close. Mathew Ainsworth Esq.

The expectations were high this year for U16 Soccer, as the graduation of two classes at the end of the year, made this truly a developmental side for our senior team next year. Both Mr. Kimmerer and I were optimistic howeyer, as a total of 13 returning players from our championship U15 side from last year made up the core of this remarkable team. As our season progressed, it was obvious from the start that this talented bunch of players possessed all the qualities of champions; an excellent overall skill set. teamwork and camaraderie, effort and most importantly the "Fire" or determination necessary to accept nothing but the best from themselves and each other.

Entering the CISAA tournament at St. Michaels our team posted a flawless 7-0 record outscoring our opponents 34-4 during the season. Our first test was against a talented side from TCS, and although our offence somewhat stalled, our defense was rock solid not giving up a single shot, ultimately spurring us onto a 1-0 victory. This advanced us to the championship game against CDS, and once again the team proved that its undefeated record was no fluke, triumphing 2-0 in a rather one-sided game.

Back to back championships in successive age divisions is certainly an accomplishment, and is a credit to the tireless dedication by the entire team. Many players were asked to play foreign roles this year, but worked hard to gain the skills and knowledge to be successful. It was this dedication and teamwork that was the real triumph, as now, many of them can move up to the senior level and know what it takes to be successful.

Mr. Kimmerer and I would especially like to thank our manager Morgan Lin for his help. Managers rarely get the accolades of top players and sometimes their contributions are overlooked, but they are still instrumental to successful teams. Morgan's unwavering dedication to SAC soccer over the last two years video taping both our and opponent games, gathering equipment, running the lines and cheering on the team has been especially appreciated. Additionally we would like to thank Mr. Marshall and Mr. Jones for all of their help and allowing us to practice with the First's. Their and the senior team's support certainly contributed to the success of our year. Mr. J. Ingles Esq.

Our captains Robert laccino and Erik Lebar pumped and cheered the team on to work together. They both had a lot to offer on the field and they shared their love of the game with their teammates. Thank you Erik and Rob for your leadership.Our exchange student from Spain, Guz was in shock to see us play in the snow on the championship day. He had never played in the fluffy white stuff and it took him awhile to get used to wearing gloves and a turtleneck. Guzman tied Erik Lebar as the top goal scorer this year.

Our Mexican connection was comprised of 2 returning players: Javo Cortina and Diego Morales. Diego was the unstoppable link in midfield. Javo was the player the team couldn't do without and we welcomed a newcomer to the school Pato Gonzalez in defence. Our enthusiastic flying goalie Lennon Sweeting perfected his signals and created a new stretch called the shakira. He plans on copyrighting it soon. Slide tackling Justin le Mieux Reale also known as Juice was the comic relief for the team. Contributions made by Viren, Seymour, Conrad, Dylan, Milnes, Butler, Thijs, and Blake were commendable.

Thank you to all for always playing in a sportsmanlike manner and maintaining a positive attitude. Our winning games in the CISAA against Bayview Glen and UCC were some of the most exciting ones of the year especially when UCC tied it up in the last 10 seconds of the final game. We taught those blue smurfs to go marching right back home. Ms. L. Picerno Esq.

As chosen by myself and the team, this year's Most Improved Player goes to a Grade 9 newboy who demonstrated an increased level of agility, skill and talent by the end of the season. He was a superstar in defense especially on our championship day. Congratulations to Cameron Martin.

MVP: Javo Cortina

The Most Valuable Player award also goes to a Grade 9 student whose superior foot skills and vision of the field were key to the many successes of this team. He is a versatile player with an excellent attitude. He scored our winning goal against UCC in overtime. Our soccer program will miss him as he returns to Mexico next year. Congratulations to Javo Cortina.

14 Soccer had an exhausting schedule, playing 14 games over 6 weeks this fall, with two long trips to Belleville, two to Hamilton, three in Toronto, once to St. Catherines, along with hosting games here against Appleby, HTS, Crescent, and Ridley. Practices could turn frustrating as our basic skill levels were surprisingly low. Drills involving two or three forwards without any defenders often ended up with an easy goalie save, or a shot well-off target. In games or in practice, when we scored, it was always cause for celebration. To really improve much at a short 1" term sport requires a good deal of awareness and commitment to working on one's sporting weaknesses. Alas, our boys found this new challenge difficult, preferring to enjoy the great camaraderie developing amongst their team-mates, which was fine, but seldom results in wins on the score sheet, if that becomes the sole focus of one's efforts. Thus, it was no surprise after our first 6 games, to find our record standing at 2 wins and 4 losses. We had been an easy push-over for noticeably smaller teams who out-hustled us consistently to the ball. As practices got longer, boys began to realise that with 18 players on the team their starting positions could not be taken for granted. Any student who showed consistent and responsible effort, despite any mistakes made, or who could demonstrate in a game that he had remembered a lesson or two taught in practice, quickly enjoyed the most playing time. Line-ups were juggled for many weeks, allowing students to often try forward, mid-field, and defensive assignments before settling into a placement where they were most comfortable and confident. With a very exciting come-from-behind win in the dying moments against Hillfield, we began a string of 4 consecutive wins, where Tony Lau and Andrew Finelli finally provided a most solid defensive tandem that gave teams the greatest difficulty penetrating. They were thoughtfully supported on the flanks by Nirushan Thambirajah and James Porter. We were fortunate to have the strengths of Trevor Jackson, Ben Udashkin, Aldo Ruiz, and Paul Jenkins, able to come in from the sidelines and relieve any of our defenders when injuries or illness arose. Arthur Wong, Chad Davis, Cameron Tait, Jameson Tipping and David Kanhai rotated through mid-field positions capably supporting goal mouth assaults by any one of our forwards. Raymond Tung always gave his best, while the pounding strides of Pierce Cassidy, the indomitable spirit of tough-as-nails Robbie Kaptyn, or the gritty determination of Mathew Halloran all gave goalies plenty to fearfully anticipate. The team improved to 7-5 and entered the final tournament against St. Mikes. We had a 2nd half comeback victory with the help of Cameron Tait's three goals. We then met the strongly improved Holy Trinity team, we gave a trong effort but could not hold our lead. This years U14 soccer team made a tremandous improvement over the season and are champions in my book. Mr. D. Kyle Esq.

s the coach of the Under 12 soccer team, I was able to experience the dream of any coach. While many of you may think that this would be winning a championship, it was the fact that 1 had 14 boys show up to try out for 14 spots on the roster and I was able to avoid the awful feeling of having to tell players that they would not have the chance to wear the red and white of the S.A.C. Saints.

Our team is also unique in that it has the highest percentage of new St. Andrew's students. This was helped by the fact that many of the members of the team have brothers here already and they come armed with knowing what is expected from a student representing St. Andrew's on a representative sports team.

I was very proud of how quickly the team picked up the College's theme of spirit by starting each game off with the gangwa cheer although it was generally done exclusively by Dylan Baker in those early games. Another highlight for me was to watch a couple of our players, who are presently playing soccer in their town's rep programs, be extremely supportive of those on our team who were playing the sport for the very first time.

While the season was only a mere seven weeks, the team was able to play 12 games and during those contests won as many as they lost. The boys developed from 14 players to one group that worked in support of each other and played up to their potential in most games. In the CISAA tournament we started with a strong victory against Ridley before losing in the semifinals to a very talented Crescent squad.

Special thanks to Josh for all of his work as our goalkeeper, to Sam, Cameron, Mark and Bobby for their tenacious efforts in defence, to Dylan, Adrian and Graydon for their tireless runs in the midfield and to Michael, Jacob, David and Tyler for their scrappy work on the forward line.

The team's Most Improved Player award goes to James Butler for the substantial role that he undertook as a member of our midfield in the latter part of the season and the team's Most Valuable Player award goes to our sweeper Alex Culp for his outstanding work anchoring our team's defence and keeping us close in many games. Te had a very memorable time playing soccer in Winnipeg - After meeting Crescent two years in a row in the semi-final, two years of double overtime and two years of shoot outs we have finally defeated the opponent, Crescent school. The team played in LCC, snow less, in the final. It was a great tournament and St. Andrew's left with the most compliments on our behaviour too. Although this is a trip that these boys will remember forever and we have a lot of memories and laughs. Michael Del Zotto and Jonathon Tozzi. After a hard fought day on our final tournament, we met Crescent yet again, but this time in the final. They got two quick goals on us and we just couldn't return them, but we held our heads high and know that we can beat them - even in the snow.

This year the team was a given a coach selected short list of players to vote for MVP and MIP, and after a very close result, this year's MIP is a player who ended the season as our starting left mid-fielder, Colin Noble and Front row: Jorge Roca, Adam Yates, Scott Giroux, Taylor Walker, Devon Bean, Jonathan our MVP made all of us feel very safe as last man back, Devon Bean. confidence and spirit. While not playing, he was the player whose absence was most strongly felt. I would like to thank this young man for six years of dedication to the St. Andrew's volleyball program.

The 1st volleyball team started with a L three-day camp in early September. There was a great deal of enthusiasm at the time for what looked to be a promising season. At the UCC Early Bird tournament they finished with a record of 10 wins and 4 losses including an exciting 35 - 33 loss to UCC in the last match of the day. That momentum continued into the University of Toronto invitational tournament on September 21 where they played a few tough matches against some of the top teams in Ontario. It continued on to Homecoming where they beat HTS convincingly in three straight games in what was probably one of their best matches of the season. Unfortunately, it was around that time as well that the team suffered a huge loss with an ankle injury to its captain and biggest hitter, Jarryd Stock. Jarryd ended up missing the next four weeks of play, leaving a void in power and leadership on the floor. The boys could not figure out how to accommodate for that loss and as a result, lost a couple of key matches to weaker teams. Those losses left them tied for fourth place in the league. As only the top four teams advance to the playoffs, ties are broken by looking at head-to-head scores. One of the matches lost during $\mathbf{F}^{\mathrm{irst}}$  of all let me say thank you to Mrs. D'Angelo who joined me in coaching the U16 Volleyball team this year. Having her as a cocoach was invaluable to the team and the time and effort she put in is greatly appreciated.

This years U16 volleyball team was a treat to coach. They had a load of talent and a lot of character. It is always a pleasure to coach coachable athletes. With only one early loss during the regular season to a less talented but well disciplined UCC team, we entered the CISAA Championship seeded 1st. A semi final win over Holy Trinity secured the anticipated re-match with UCC for the final.

Our boys won the first game of the best of 5 match 25 to 9 to open the final with a lop sided win. UCC however was not going to quit and fought back to win the second set 26 - 24 and the third 25 - 18. With our backs to the wall we rallied to win the fourth 25 - 14, another convincing win. Then it all came down to one rally point game to 15. Despite having a much more potent attack and Brick wall blocking, UCC prevailed in the 5th set 15-12 in a heartbreaking loss. To a man our team played with skill, heart and determination, a performance of which they should be very proud.

A major highlight to the season was winning the Consolation Championship at the Rick Hansen Secondary School Junior Boys Invitational. Of particular significance was that the tournament was made up of 13 public school teams that play at the Under 17 level and at the senior age net height. Therefore considering that we were pitted against teams a year older and playing on a net 19 cm higher, the team put on quite a show. We won our pool of 5 teams, swept the quarter finals and then lost in the semifinals to eventual tournament winners Rick Hansen S. S.

Eight of our players will move up to the 1st team level next year, with four remaining as the core of another very competitive U16 team. Our most improved player was difficult to decide. So many players improved greatly over the course of the season, but this player went from one who was on the bubble during team selection to a starter in the Championship match. He developed over the course of the season into a well rounded player who was able to provide solid hitting and clutch passing. This years MIP goes to Dennis Chang. Mr. G. Ried Esq.

Our MVP was another tough decision. We had players who were unbeatable at the net, blocking everything in the same area code. We had others that consistently pounded the ball at opposition defenses instilling a fear that you could see in their eyes. We had players who sacrificed the body play after play to dig balls that were nearly unreachable. And finally we had setting and playmaking that had Senior team Coaches envying our level of strategy and game play. In the end, however our MVP goes to the player who led the team in all respects. On and off the floor Cody Biggings was the player we needed most. His leadership, spirit, skills and team building were truly an asset that made the difference. Congratulations Cody on being this years U16 Volleyball MVP.

At the beginning of the season, I Anticipated that it was going to be a team-building year. Many of the players were inexperienced, not particularly tall and a bit too cautious. However, I underestimated the ability and determination of the young men who made up this year's U14 Volleyball team. They were a very coach-able team willing to try out new roles, practice new drills and support each other's efforts on the court.

There were many moments I shall never forget– Shingo's hard serves which won us the game against Crescent in the final tournament but 30% of the time hit Dennis in the back of the head. Dennis's cry of "set it to me, set it to me" in the game against

This season was a busy one with a total of seven meets. Our senior team, made up of Gordon Hunter, Geoff Delean, Brad Downey, Emmery Cheung, Armen Khajetoorian, and Hugh Dowell, was very competitive, finishing in second in both the CISAA and York Region conferences. Finishing second of fifteen in York Region allowed us to advance to OFSAA, this year held at Trinity College School.

In terms of individual highlights Gordon Hunter enjoyed a wonderful season finishing first in the CISAA and second in York Region championship meets. No one can argue with his determination to get better. He thrived on hard work and it paid off. We are pleased to present Gordon with two awards. One is the gold metal for first place CISAA finish, and second being the MVP award.

There is one more individual award. Going to the MIP in the midget category. This individual, day in and day out, put forth a great effort. He was one that never complained, even when asked to move up a category. He put the team first in his mind. The MIP is Kevin Dong

This year St. Andrew's College held its first "Hoops for Heart" event for the Heart and Stroke Foundation. The event took place on December 17, 2002. It began with a motivational speaker and then proceeded with all students actively participating in a basketball themed unit. The students were divided into eleven groups and moved from station to station working on an array of basketball skills. The event was designed to increase student awareness as to the benefits of a healthy and active lifestyle with an added emphasis on living tobacco free and balanced eating habits. It was a fun and educational day for all!

St. Andrew's night is a special occasion in the year where the entire school Can gather and celebrate the rich Scottish heritage of the school. This year certainly proved to be another fine celebration with haggis, piping and of course a feast of grand proportions. We were very fortunate to have four guests join our festivities this year. Alistair Gillies and Don Hamilton entertained us with the rousing address "To the Haggis" while Andreans' and old boys Jim Herder '64 and Michael Roy '85 reminisced

What started out as a very cold and windy day on the hills turned out to be almost perfect with some nice powder, warm sun and great friends. It wasn't all fun and games though, many of the teachers could only dream of hitting those beautiful snowy hills as they stayed in the chalet and marked second term papers for the upcoming report card. Others watched DVD's on their computers, played cards, and Risk. Some even hit the hills. All in all a great time was had by everyone!

Since its inception in 1983, the MacPherson Tournament has always been one of the more popular events at SAC. This year was no different as enthusiasm for the event was high. This year marked the 20th anniversary of the tournament, and as usual, it was quite a show. Our SAC Saints started the tournament with an 8-0 trouncing of their first opponent, St. Josephs. However, things were not so bright for our boys later on in the tournament. Despite a close 4-2 loss in the traditional Friday night game, it was an extremely enjoyable evening which included not only great hockey, but a performance by the pipes and drums, the SASSIN shootout, and the much anticipated Islanders vs. Asians game. The Saints had one final chance of making the semi finals on Saturday morning, but fell just short to a talented IMG Academy. Overall the tournament went well and we look forward to seeing it again next year.

On February 20, 21, and 22, the famed Russian playwright Anton Chekhov was finally brought to the S.A.C. stage with two of his hilarious short plays performed by some of the school's best actors. The first play, The Proposal, about a hypochondriac trying to propose to the woman of his dreams, starred Adam Parent, David Nudds, and Meghan Marshall, all acting great through the zany plotline. The second play, The Bear: A Joke in One Act, about a woman who has given up on love and the crazy man who redeems her, starred Eitan Rosenberg, Deanna Rose, Arnold Al-Aadahmi, Kevin Wilson, and Will Mulock, acting their best in this infamous black comedy. Laughs came fast and furious as the audience finally got their first taste of the wild and wacky imagination of Anton Chekhov.

he Varsity team had a difficult season finishing below .500 for the first time in many years. A challenging schedule, was partially responsible for our results as we played 19 of 32 games vs. top U.S. Prep schools. The season started with promise with our first meaningful game of the year at UCC. After a shaky 1st period the team came alive and played great bockey in the final 2 periods. Stellar goallending by Tyler Hurst kept the score at 1-0 for UCC. With tess than a minute to go and our goalie pulled Jordan Cyr snapped a wrist shot past the UCC goalie for a well deserved 1-1 tie. We followed this with some or our best hockey of the year at Colgate University where we swept both Millbrook School & National Sports Academy. The highlight of this trip was watching NCAA Division 1 rivals Colgate University take on Brown and Harvard.

Injuries were a key factor this year although not quite to the extent as the 2001-02 season. The team showed tremendous courage at the Ridley Early Bird tournament. We played Shady Side Academy from Pennsylvania with only 11 players. Three of four defensemen were actually forwards that we had to move back. Down 2o going into the 3rd period we scored 5 unanswered goals to win the game. Throughout the remainder of the year we showed flashes of brilliance but were never able to play at a consistently high level. The MacPherson tournament was a microcosm of our year. We easily won our Friday morning match setting the stage for an exciting Friday Night game. Despite dominating big stretches and out-shooting our opponent the Saints went down in defeat 4-2 to a tough Gilmour Academy side. We were unable to regroup in time to take on IMG Academy on Saturday morning ending the Saints run at the title prematurely.

We competed hard throughout the year. In the 2nd half of the season, scoring enough goals to bury an opponent was a challenge. Untimely injuries prohibited us from playing exhibition games against OFSAA champion Mount Carmel Secondary & runner-up St. Mike's. As a team we were anxious to prove we belonged with Toronto's top 10 ranked teams. It is unfortunate we didn't get a chance to prove ourselves. Able athletes are stepping-in and stopping-up to the Varsity squad but with so many graduating the team will have a totally different feel next year. We wish the seniors well.

When people ask if your season was a success, many times they are asking if you had a winning season. And no, we did not have a winning season but yes, it was a success. Itold the team at the beginning of the season that no one has ever accomplished anything without going through some kind of adversity. We were not expected to win the championship this year, we were not expected to accomplish much. However, what we did do was learn. We learned that you do not have to have a legitimate sniper to a game. We learned team play. We learned how twenty players could put aside their individual needs for a common goal. It was half way through the season when we learned this... but we did learn it.

The season started disappointing when we went through a string of games when we couldn't score a goal, then a stint where we couldn't stop a goal. It was when we played ours and, probably the entire league's nemesis, the "St. Michael's U16 Team" that things changed. We knew as usual that we were in for a tough afternoon. It didn't help knowing that it was St. Mike's "B" team that won their own tournament a few weeks earlier. And now we are playing their "A" team, but this is where our season turned around. We played tough, we played smart, we played determined and most of all, we played like a team. Did we end up losing? Yes, but the score was a respectable 4-2 and one of there goals was a bit of a bad bounce. The rest of the season was a joy to play. At one point we went unbeaten in 5 games which kept our team plugging along.

I would like to thank a few people who have contributed to our season: Mr. Hussey without whom it would have made a very difficult season, The support from the JV and First Teams, Mrs. Bedard, Mr. Reid, Mr. Kimmerer, Jordan Ekers, Igor Kastelyanets and of course, Mrs. Perrier, Mr. B. Kitagawa Esq.

When the Under 14 hockey team began practicing, we had one goal: to play in the championship game. We reached our goal and met our arch rival, St. Michael's W College, in the final. And although we did not win the game, our boys put forth an excellent effort and deserve a great deal of credit in their fight to win the championship. If nothing else, St. Mike's learned that they that they need to respect St. Andrew's a great deal more! We would like to thank Jamie Lawson and Alex McNabb for their help as assistant coaches. As usual, Mr. Galajda and I would like to impress upon you our TOP TEN list of great moments this past year.

#10: The Great goaltending which helped our success throughout the year, led by Cam Healy and Scott Giroux, with Rob Kidd. #9: The great efforts of the scrapper line of Mitch LeBar, Graydon Calvert, Alex Leon and Jake Hurlbut, throughout the year. #8: Colin's Noble's entire family and friends cheering on David Nam and Jack Avalos in their Canadian hockey debut at Appleby. #7: The excellent leadership of our captain, Pierce Cassidy, and our assistants, Logan Hurst, Michael Del Zotto, Colin Noble, Taylor Campbell and Jason Wilson. #6: The Lebar brothers and their weekly visits to the salon to get their hair permed. #5: Meeting Colin Mochrie from This Hour has 22 Minutes and Whose Line is it Anyways in the Halifax Airport. #4: The team deciding the Mr. Stewart is funnier than Colin Mochrie. #3: Jake Carrick using his smile to meet and hang out with the entire flight crew of an Air Switzerland flight. #2: Jon Tozzi: The boisterous, loud, enthusiastic, energetic, funny, GOAL SCORING MACHINE. #1: Winning the inaugural Under 15 King's Edgehill Hockey Tournament in Halifax, Nova Scotia! It was a season filled with great hopes, great skill and some great basketball. Excellent performances were made early in the year to give promise of great things. A quick 3-0 record in league play, an appearance in our own tournament championship and much improved play from many players. We continued that trend of hustling on defense and finding the open offensive player. Unfortunately we were subject to hot and cold spells – inconsistent shooting and costly turnovers were issues with which we struggled in the second half of the year. We finished 3rd in league play with an overall record of 6 wins and 3 losses. In an incredibly competitive season we played a total of 20 games including 11 games that had a point differential of less than 5 points. We look forward to great things in basketball next year.

MVP: Our leader on the court, in many cases he seemed like an assistant coach. He saw the floor very well and led by example – hustling on defense, being unselfish on offense, and able to effectively attack the hoop. Austin Smith.

MIP: This guy was not going to try out for the team this year, in fact, I had to encourage him to come out after seeing him in the weight room. He is an incredible force on the back boards and his big rebounds led to many excellent offensive attacks.Vince De Civita.

Including exhibitions we played 21 games, finishing up with a 14 and 7 won-loss record. In CISAA league play we placed fourth of ten teams and found ourselves very competitive with the teams ahead of us in the standings. When it came to playoff time even though we were matched up against undefeated Lakefield, this year's League and CISAA champions, in the semi-finals I liked our chances of an upset. We had lost to them earlier by 4 points in a game where foul problems and two key defensive lapses in the final minute cost us.

From a coaching point of view I thoroughly enjoyed our season. It was great fun. We met our first objective of qualifying for the playoffs. Along the way we were in several close hotly contested games. I liked our effort. I liked our commitment. Our graduating players provided excellent leadership. I felt we showed considerable improvement in individual skills and team play. Bob Perrier Esq.

he Under 14 basketball team entered the season with high expectations. We had a strong team with many players joining us from the previous years under 13 team which lost in the finals.

SAINT

The season started out strong. We were able to win our first four games in the month of November and looked very much like a championship team with easy victories over Appleby College and Ridley. We were being led by the strong play of our more senior players from grade nine Paul Jenkins, Adrian Bruno, and Jesse Cohen. We left for Christmas vacation with a record of 4 - 1 after losing to Crescent by two points just before the holidays began.

January proved to be bleak for our team. We lost 3 of 5 games and although Justin Nozuka and Shinge Nishioka did their best to keep the teams offense productive we could not score enough points to win, losing the three games by a combined 5 points. The team as a whole were improving especially some of our forwards. Adrian Wu, Emerson Wai, and Denis Tomory began to control rebounds and gave us hope for a successful February.

The turning point in the season was the addition of Greg Vandemark as monater. He was invaluable and truly improved the team and our chances for victory every time he was We started February with a victory at Villanova's annual tournament. Our average margin of victory at this tournament was by 20 points. A trip to Ottawa continued our tournament play. We finished second behind the strong play of Bryan Linn and the emergence r star point guard. We had amassed a record of 18 wins and 7 losses heading in ournament.0

At the tournament we opened up with a victory over Crescent where we led by as much as 22 points. Our next match in the semifinals was against Hillfield College and we were ready for them. Jamison Tipping played an outstanding game and we went into the final quarter trailing by 6 points. Unfortunately we could not get any closer. MVP: Boris Wong MIP: Jacob MacDonald The under twelve Saints basketball team enjoyed tremendous improvement throughout the course of the season. Although only one member of the squad had played organized hoops prior to the season, every member of the team worked hard towards the goal of making the final tournament. Early season shellackings at the hands of some of our rivals obligated Coach McGee to seek assistance in teaching fundamental skills. Under the tutelage of Ms. Tara Perrier the team worked hard and showed much improvement. Players such as Alex Culp, Adrian "Slash" Eng, Mark Jenkins and Stanley Lin demonstrated some superior skills and and carried us closer to our ultimate goal. The next step was to bring back the master of strategy Mr. Hanson to teach and coach our offense and defense. Almost immediately the team improved and won some hard fought games over some previously unbeatable teams. Seeing improvement at both ends of the court from players such as Josh Harris, Ryan Cole, Bobby McDonald, and Cam Oram was very gratifying. Our quest for a final tournament placing made the final game in Dunlap Gym a must win. The team played magnificently and did the proud tradition of the old brick barn proud. Thank you to all the members of the team and congratulations to the MVP Boris Wong and to the MIP Jacob MacDonald.

What a thrill it was to see each player improve so much across the season: Doug MacDonald - with his smothering defensive posturing; Jorge Laborin - with his quick weaving left-handed drives to the basket for many lay-up points; Justin Oh - with his desire to learn the game and wild intensity on the court; Julian Cheong - with his tenacious defense and amazing foul shot %; SeungMok Ha - with his pinpoint passing, speedy learning curve, and inspired chanting of "DEFENSE, DEFENSE" whenever he graced the bench; Gordon Gray - with his high pressure defense that caused so many turnovers for the opposition; John Stoneman - who gave so much effort, despite bone sores in his growing feet, and who shone so brightly on our final tournament day against Appleby; John Si - whose selfless efforts by season's end made him one of our most valuable point guards; Taylor Walker - who could be seen most often flying horizontally through the air after a loose ball, and who always brought his best efforts to every practice and game; Peter Goitanich - who grew into an indomitable rebounder and playmaker; Josh Hanson - again who by season's end, put on a clinic, and scored a bundle of points, driving, deeking or cleverly assisting, thanks to his keen sense of the game; Daniel Morgis - our towering centre, who had to stay in the game so much to make sure we had a fighting chance at winning. Dan is blessed with many natural talents. And then there's Adel Ratansi - our fearless captain, who practiced and played with a cast for many weeks. The last hilight is from our CISAA championship day, in the consolation final, we were able to clearly dominate a UCC side that had easily beaten us by 20 points only a few weeks previously. What a thrill it was to see each player improve so much across the season Many of our boys played with bloody noses and lips, scraped knees and bruised arms, but all bravely played the best basketball of their young lives. I was never so proud of their effort on the floor, and the enthusiasm and encouragement they all generated from the bench. I may not be so lucky to work with as great a bunch of young men again, but that will be okay, because I know what it feels like to coach the the best. Thanks for the great memories, guys! The medley relay team of Ryan, Jeff Hynds, Chad and Adam improved on last year's 6th place finish by winning a silver medal, while the 200 freestyle relay team who did not even place in the top 16 last year, placed 4th, only actions of a second behind the bronze medallists. Te are very lucky to have six excellent squash courts at the school. With the goal of making squash a centre of excellence, it is important to challenge our athletes with the best level of play available. This year, 9 players from our 1st, JV, U16 and U14 entered provincial tournaments in Markham, Burlington and Woodbridge and got to see firsthand the tremendous caliber of squash in the province. The players whe entered these tournaments were motivated to improve, receive coaching and practise. The two first team players who most exemplified this spirit of commitment were Dennis Wong and Faisal Ratansi. Each achieved a level of play in the last half of the season that enabled them to defeat players 2 and 3 spots above them on the ladder.

What is interesting about squash is that a good athlete, who is new to the game, can pick it up rather quickly as he joined the program for the first challenging for a spot on the first squad. worthy of mention is Clement Yau who several commitments throughout the season yet did not let this interfere with his game. Then days before the final tournament he was in a car accident yet he persevered and played, despite being shaken-up and sore from the collision. After an enjoyable season of exhibition play with other schools, the 1st team finished the season in 3nd place just behind Appleby in 2nd, but with Ridley way out in front in 1st place. This year's Under 16 Squash team remained undefeated all season long. The determination to win and play fair was truly evident amongst the whole group. Jon Adamo, Fernando Paramo, Luis Paramo, Adam Bucci, Justin Au and Vince Wong were always ranked in the top eight and usually cleaned out their competitors from schools like Holy Trinity, Bayview Glen, Ridley, Appleby, Crescent and UCC. Good luck next year as you move up to first squash. Special mention to Fernando Esteban, Matt Langer, Tomi Jun, George Si, Mike McIntosh, Jeff Seymour and Jon Mackenzie for their great efforts all season. We also had the chance to see Mr.Cameron often as he was the coach of the TCS team, we saw them so often (six times in a row) that we even knew the players first and last names by the finals. The Russian Embassy took our number one player at the time, Alex Ryazanov away from us on the day of our CISAA in order to sort out his VISA problems. Talk about bad timing!

Our Most Improved Player was never on a squash team before this year. He started off at the bottom and hovered around the middle of the ladder during the season. He stepped up to play the difficult third position in our final championship. This player ensures that everyone knows who he is with his loud booming voice, he must take after his older brother...Congratulations to the team's MIP, Paul Ross.

A natural at any sport, the Most Valuable Player is no stranger to nail biting finishes. He is used to games ending in overtime and he is used to being the lifesaver of the team. He helped St.Andrew's capture a soccer and a squash championship this year. The MVP had to play a difficult match against UCC in the finals, we were tied with the Blue Smurfs and the days' fate depended on him. As everyone in the stands nervously watched this neck in neck game, our team hero played a drop shot that stunned his opponent and captured our first place finish. It was a day that I will never forget. St.Andrew's will be losing a fine athlete as he returns to Mexico after spending two years here. CSM Chris Attard took over for the day as Acting RSM while the service of the Officers "fall-in" and A/RSM Attard turned the Parade over to the Senior Officers. The Pipes and Drums sounded the step-off and the Corps proudly marched from Branksome Hall to St. Paul's Anglican Church. The Grade 8 Graduating class departed for Quebec City Wednesday June 04 and experienced the province's fine culture for five days, returning the 08th of June. The trip was a tremendous success! The boys thoroughly enjoyed themselves throughout the entire trip, engaging in various cross-curricular activities while practising their oral French the entire time. Some of the highlights of the trip included whale watching in Tadoussac...what a sight! We observed many Beluga whales and a few Menkes only feet away from our boat! The boys had the opportunity to visit both Lower and Upper Quebec and experienced La Citadel, Quebec's famous fortress taking them back to the early times of Champlain. They were even able to role-play the Battle of Quebec on Canada's National Park, The Plains of Abraham. After a long day of travelling the city and being exposed to French-Canadian history they enjoyed an evening swim at the University of Laval. The boys ate many traditional meals including one at the famous "Cabane à Sucre" where they also participated in folklore dancing. Our final day was spent visiting St. Anne de Beaupre and Montmorency Falls...both absolutely beautiful! It was a fantastic trip for the boys and teachers alike, a memorable trip to conclude a very memorable year.

This years' 1st Team came with a great skill level, but also some issues with attitude and egos. We knew this coming in...but that didn't make it any easier. If there's one message I'd need to get out to the younger athletes in this audience – please remember that developing as an athlete means developing as a sportsman... your attitude is actually more important than your level of skill. Obviously you need both skill and attitude to become a truly exceptional athlete... but attitude is the most important.

Our first experience was a trip down to the Ohio Rugby Classic. We won all three matches, and outscored our opponents 89-10. We also had a red card and numerous penalties for talking to the ref, and were Division Champions.

Our next experience was a trip to the CAIS National Tournament at King's Edgehill school in Nova Scotia. We did a much better job of being disciplined with only a few outbursts... and schooled our opponents 114 - 0, winning all 5 matches and the National title for the second year in a row. Coach Shields and I were getting excited at this point... we had talent, AND discipline...

Then comes the week of Cadet inspection, 10 days off, the Cadet formal... and we meet UCC the following Wednesday... and we have lost our edge and our composure.. and earn the only loss of our season.

The rest of the season saw some steady improvement until the playoffs when, I have to hand it to these players – they played a near perfect semi-final match dismissing Appleby 44-5.

The finals, as the many of you who came down to UCC know, were a superb display of rugby, but – to be honest – we did not play anywhere near as well as we could have. We did play, for the most part, a disciplined, and certainly a creative brand of rugby that made us stand out from all the teams we met this year. And coming back from an 18-6 deficit with 15 minutes in a CISAA final remaining takes real discipline.

Coach Shields and myself would like to thank all the players who brought it together to bring us all a CISAA Championship for the first time in 5 years. This championship is a testament to the skill, determination, and discipline of these players.

> The JV Rugby team started off very successfully initially participating in a tournament in Ohio, where we successively competed against many first teams of much larger schools losing 2 and winning 1. It was evident even at this point that out team was going to be very competitive and what seemed to be the team to beat as the season got underway.

Many measure the success of a season by their win and loss record and whether they are victorious in the final. However, for these 20 players, overcoming adversity and facing almost insurmountable odds proved that solely skill and speed are not necessarily the most important thing in successful teams. Determination, desire and above all pride is what makes teams champions. Although we succumbed in the final to a to a Powerful squad from SJK, this was the most memorable season I have ever had and these boys are still champions.

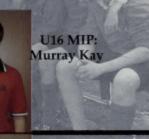

I must first thank Mr. Treasure for all of his video footage, help in practice and support in games as well as Ms. Ossenkop who was a fantastic help on the sidelines taping and tending to the many injuries that we suffered throughout the year. Most of all, however I would like to thank our Graduating players for their effort and dedication to the team. All told there are 13, 8 of which played on the team for 2 years namely Ryan Miller, Jason Lau, Alex Camargo, Freddie Kane, Allan Bean, Mike Bottomly, Jon Milnes and Joseph Lau and one who has played for three - Jae Hee Lee.

t was a tremendous year for the St. Andrew's College 2003 track and field team. Begining with the York Region Championships, the Saints had several strong proformances from Collin Collins, Senior MVP Gord Hunter, Midget MVP Karl McCartney, Chris McFarlane, Senter MVP Scott Simmons, and Junior MVP J.P Suddaby. The CISAA Championships proved to be even more successful than York Region with dramatic victories by the Saints 4x100 and 6x400 meter relay teams. It was a biftersweet moment for the boys after defeating was a bittersweet moment for the boys after defeating the Southern Champions Ridley College in both relays. They knew they had the talent to move on, however they were unable to field teams at meets that would qualify them for OFSAA. Gord Hunter and J.P. Suddaby qualified for OFSAA in their respective events for the third year in a row. Scott Simmons and Karl McCartney attended their first Provincial Champion ship. It was a learning experience for both of them and hopefully Karl can return next year to represent the Saints at the most presitgous track and field meet of the high school year. Many thanks should go to all of the guys who came out and ran for St. Andrew's. The future looks bright and hopefully more strong runners can come along to fill the big shoes left by this year's graduates.

> Come of us did pretty well and some of us didn't do as well, Obut this is not what badminton is about. The main point of this sport is to have fun and enjoy ourselves in the games. We have lost to tough opponents, but so what? Winning doesn't provide as much of a lesson as losing, but by losing we can learn from our mistakes and improve. The season started with disorganization and rusty moments, and as the season, progressed, we had pulled together a strong team with great sense of SAC spirit. York Region Tournament was a great start of our badminton season, and it broadened our perspective in terms of skills and strategies. The rest of the season went pretty smooth, but the CISAA hit us hard. Nonetheless, it was a great season worth remembering. Ryan's coaching, Dennis's drops, George's "consistency", Simon's smashes, Richard's aggression, and Dave's frustration are always the highlights d the season. Big thanks to Ryan and Dennis for the coaching and all the practices, and especially Mr. Dominato for giving hi analysis in between games. Keep the team up next year an don't let us down! Kevin Lau

This year's U16 team was made up mostly veterans and therefore they were experienced and understood what needed to be done to be successful. They worked hard in practice and were open to criticism and coaching. Their dedication and work ethic payed off with a very solid regular season, lead by the exceptional play of 1st Single and captain Calvin Lam. At the CISAA Championships our 2nd Single, Vincent Wong finished a strong 2nd with a gutsy performance, while 3rd Single "JJ" Lee won his division with real heart and determination. Our 2nd Doubles team of Samuel Kuit and Auldis Sung surprised everyone by playing their best badminton of the year and won their division as well. Finishing with two 1st places and a 2nd out of six divisions was still only good for 3ry place overall. Never the less, this was a very rewarding season. Well done gents, and thanks for your efforts. SK

arly in the season it became apparent that the team to beat would be Crescent School. With the loss of key player Sebastian Manigat to Rugby and our hopes diminished, we still managed to work together as a team committed to this one program in building our skill sets and strategies. Unfortunately the Granite Club School Crescent were to strong in the final tournament but I believe our players had personal bests and could see how their game had improved over the season. Special mention to our two doubles teams Mike Ferguson and Alexander Leon and Josh Hanson and Tony Lau who were second places finishers in a field of 9 teams!

The MVP this year set a standard of effort, attitude, conduct and deportment - Sean Eng.

MIP - Two players were clear candidates for this award. The first candidate, Scott Genin, went from being the team bird repairmen to earn a spot in the final tournament as third singles player. The MIP goes, though, to the player who almost took top spot from his brother - Adrian Eng. Marke Jones Esg.

A couple weeks ago I was really pleased to see table tennis showcased in a video on an email conference. We might only use a little Celluloid ball 40 millimetres in diameter but technique, hand -eye coordination and agility are huge components of our sport, as was shown. We will never get leather as there is no CIS championship. Nevertheless there is a strong group of enthusiasts here and I am pleased to be associated with them.

The future looks promising. For the first time that I can remember the junior squad is more numerous than the senior one and shows lots of potential. One pair reached the semi finals of the York Region championship and it is one of them who receives the MIP award in recognition of his efforts and the progress he made. Tommy Tan.

The MVP award goes to a graduating student who has been an enthusiastic player for these past three years and a partner in this year's number one pair - Steven Lam.

The time for softball at St. Andrew's has come to pass as for my poems, this will be the last. An interesting season to say the least As for the rain, well it never ceased. Two games we played as scheduled and planned The rest they were wet, cold and finally by demand. Our team this year was full of pride, 15 great guys who were by the coaches' sides. An assistant coach softball has never had, So thank you Mrs. D'Angelo, to have you made us glad! Nine players we have leaving our beloved S. A. C. So have patience as we address who they'd be: A three year veteran with me and assistant captain too, Third base will never be the same MacArthur without you. And then we move to the bag at second, Joaquin's a talent with whom no one could reckon. At first we had the mighty Fraser Fell, Never played with us before, but this no one could tell. This year's pitcher extraordinaire, James Keston had a season not to be compared. Sean Bornstein was learning the art of pitching too Lots of progress he made - good for you. Behind the plate we had a few Mark Browning we're sorry we'll have no season number two. Next we approach our utility man Jeremy Lee played where ever he was needed for our plan. Eric Swenker our assistant captain number two, Thanks for everything as we needed your praise and rallied around vou. But now we move onto our MIP And with this choice I think our team will agree. A player who never, ever quit And who was even this season in the mouth hit. Eric Samson-Doel you really came far This is way you're our MIP star. As for our MVP we need not look past Our youngest player and an arm to blast Team captain Ryan Bucci you're the one Who gets this year's MVP little - so up you To the 6 players we're leaving behind Good luck with whatever term three spo Thanks to all when layed on this team really made S. Golf at St. Andrew's is a unique sport. I believe this is the only sport that both the junior and senior teams practice together each day, they play on the same courses at each tournament with two exceptions and each tournament is important because points are earned toward the ultimate championships by how well a team places in each individual tournament. The other unique element of golf is the players golf attracts and the interesting perspicuous they bring to the game.

This year we set a goal of defending the junior championship and winning the senior championship.

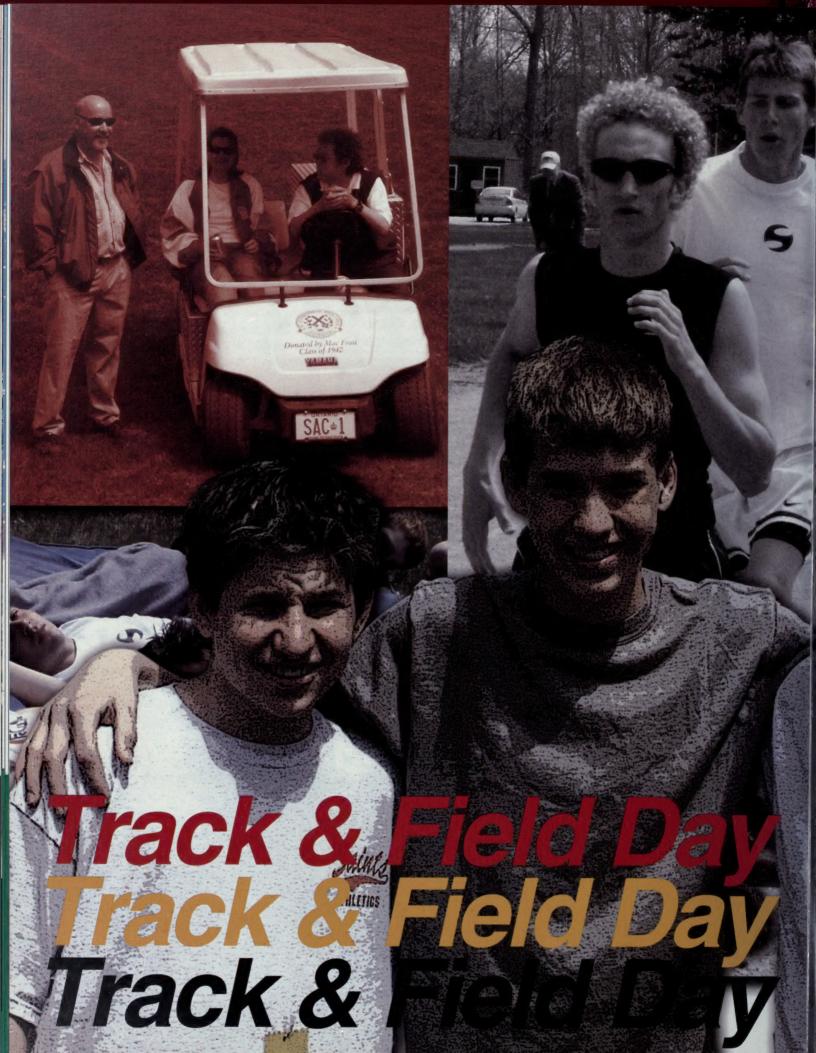

The depth of the program and teams was evident at the Inaugural Cardinal Golf Course High School Invitational Tournament for local high school teams. Because many members of the senior team were unavailable to play due to Prefect election announcements. We entered one senior player, Brent Brandham and four Cassidy, Alex Tang and Ryan Bryce into the senior tournament. Matt shot a 79, the second lowest score of the day and the team won the senior championship.

Going into the last tournament of the season, the junior team was tied for 1st place and the senior team was in 2nd place behind Appleby. The junior team won their final tournament outright thus clinching the junior championship. A repeat championship! The seniors made it a little more interesting by placing 2nd in the final tournament, but more importantly, finishing ahead of Appleby. Finishing 13 points ahead of our nearest rival, St. Andrew's won the championship!We accomplished what we set out to do. The only school to win both championships in the same season and this is the second time we have done it. Mr. R Giel Esq.

For the last 4 years I've seen a lot of guys come and go. Now it's my turn. Though not all my time here at sac has been joyful, it's still sad to leave this all behind. The lessons that we've learned at SAC are what we'll take with us when we leave and are what will help mould our future. Now it's my turn to join the boys before me whom taken the step out into the hostile world. We all have to find our own place in the world; luckily I have my experiences from SAC to light the way. If I could leave one note to the graduating boys of future years it would be to make sure you haven't missed out on anything.

Without St. Andrew's College, I am not sure where I would be in life. The many experiences that have encompassed the duration of my affiliation with this school have shaped almost all of what I have become today. I am indebted forever to all the faculty, students and staff (past and present) who, just by being a presence, have enabled me to grow as a person - and an Andrean. To the friends (both Andrean and from other schools) I have accumulated during my time at S.A.C. - Thank You! Without all of you I would have been lost, especially during those times when I just needed someone problems and screwed up ideas. I would mention all of you in this comment if I could, but I only have limited you are. To my family - Mom, Dad, Jed & Keith: I know that at times I may seem distant and quiet. Mr. Scoular, your inspiration has been greatly appreciated ever since I first auditioned for you. Ms. Venters, you have helped me recover from injury and achieve two of my goals at SAC: one was joining first swimming, and the other was to bring home a CISAA championship. When I entered the gates of SAC four years ago I can't forget how badly I wanted to leave. Here I am four years later, and I can definitely say that SAC has aided me in becoming the complete man and a well-rounded individual. Over the last four years I have learned to become independent in so many different ways. Being surrounded by such pleasant and brilliant people in such a small community and creating life long friendships. Being a border only added to the thrill of being here and also made me wash clothes every once in a while. There was never a dull moment whether it be Mrs. Perrier's wonderful snacks after study or throwing

I have spent some the best years of my life here at St. Andrews College, after graduating from Belair High School in Jamaica 1999-2000 I had no where to go but here, my uncle Christopher Webb's (77-79) school. Since then I have done more than I could ever have imagined and at the same time matured from the child that left Jamaica in to the man that is proud to be from Jamaica. Through being here I have to met many persons from the different nations of the world that I know of and from nations that I never knew existed such as Abu Dhabi (yo Zeebo), but most of all it was through meeting people that learned about how the real world is, aside from being in cadets every Thursday. I can say that I have done a lot of what the school has to offer but still little overall, but if I were to have a would not change a thing. I leave this school with no regrets and with confidence in myself. To list some this school I have been: Floor Captain on the 2nd floor of Flavelle 02-03, Company Sergeant Flavelle who set up the Flavelle theatre, Mac house captain first term 01 - 02 (look for me in the painting in the Mac house library), SNA 02 - 03,

First, thanks to my parents for providing the money for me to go to school at such a place as S.A.C.. Thanks to all the friends I made here for making it an even better experience it could have been; Eric, Josh, Paddy, Dougie, Merv, Nathan, Jarryd, Botts, Dadson, and everybody else who I may have missed. Our class is a bunch of hard working individuals who have succeeded greatly through this very hard year. I say hard because of all the construction going on and our tuck shop that was torn down early on during the year. We have been very grateful for the fact year for our teacher Mr. Ruscitti who has given our class many pizza parties and other rewards which, I think, was greatly enjoyed by all of my fellow classmates and I. The year was quite an interesting one, with half of our class being new boys. Cadets was an interesting experience, especially since I have never experienced anything quite like it before. It takes endurance to stand straight for over 1 hour and intelligence to learn the commands and drills. The athletic ability of our class improved greatly as the year progressed, thanks largely to Mrs. Perrier, who organised fun games that improved our physical fitness. All in all, the year was a success for all of the Grade 7 students.

The Grade 6 class has an interesting combination of personalities. There are boys from Korea, Australia, Mexico, Hong Kong and of course Canada. Our homeroom teacher is Mr. Kyle, who also teaches us Science and English: We have studied many different things this year. Some of them include: building k'nex in science, studying Greece and Rome in history, in French we have studied Paris and Quebec, in English we studied punctuation and a couple of novels. We have enjoyed these subjects very much including all of our other ones. The boys in our class all have participated in at least one sport showing that we are an athletic group of boys.

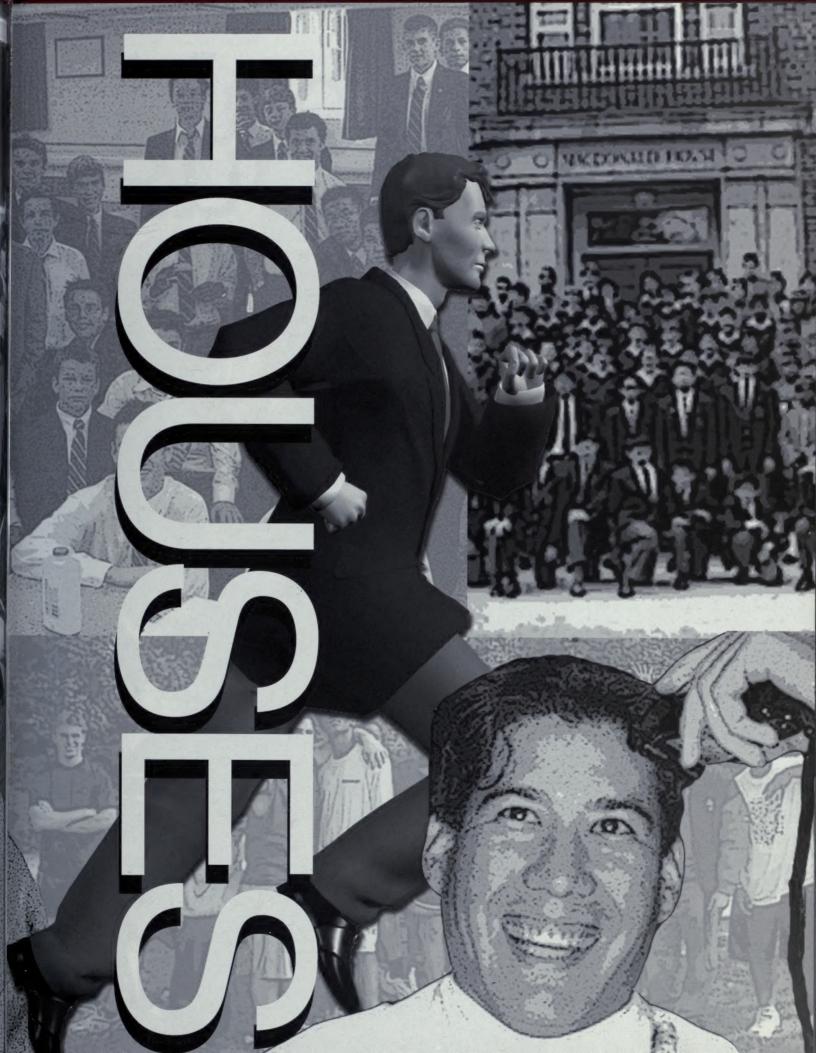

Now we will talk about the boys in our class. Mark Jenkins is a very talented basketball player, Joshua Harris is a very likeable guy, Alex Culp is very good at soccer, Jorge Roca is a Mexican and likes to play on the computer, Bobby McDonald is a very trustworthy guy and is a friend to everyone, Jameel Hanoun is a very smart kid and is filled with facts and knowledge, Boris Wong is a very funny guy even though he can be shy, Dave Nam always strives for his best while doing his work his English speaking has improved vastly over the course of the year, Jack Avalos also comes from Mexico and loves to share his culture with the class, Alistair Man is a boarder and loves being here all the time. Tyler Aron likes to play soccer, hockey and squash, Ryan Cole is a very interesting character and has a great sense of humour, Michael Anderson is a talented artist and is an amazing piano player he also is a good soccer player, James Doran is from Australia and is an incredibly responsible boy and on top of that is a great classmate, Michael Goitanich is class president and very co-operative, Sam Millette is class vice president and is very funny, and nice. Mr. Kyle is our homeroom, English and Science teacher and is a great teacher, he makes learning in grade 6 interesting.

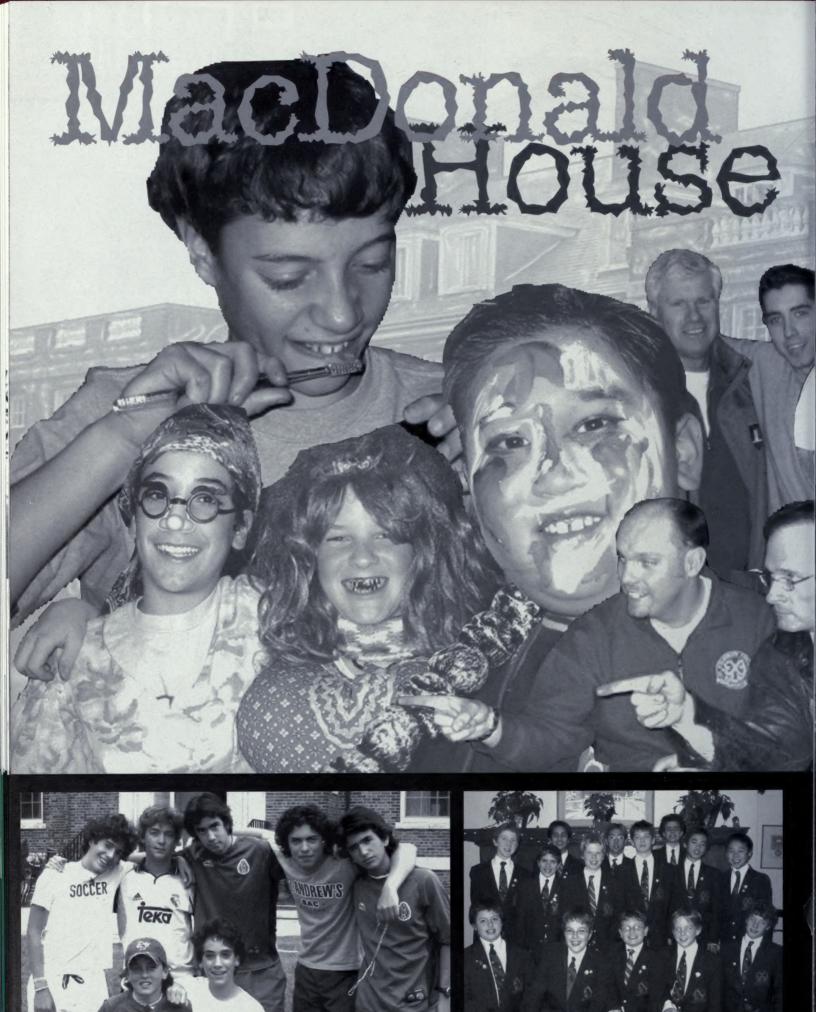

As you can tell this years grade 6 class is a very enthusiastic addition to our school. We will continue to thrive all throughout our years at St. Andrew's,

Wow! The year seemed to fly by in the hallways of Macdonald House and what an action-packed year it was! I am pleased to report that our Residential Life Curriculum certainly added a great deal to our current Residential Life Program. Throughout the year, I have reinforced that fact that a Residential Life Curriculum is as equally important as the academic curriculum within a boarding school. The Macdonald House Duty Team, consisting of Masters Mr. Kitagawa, Dr. Joiner, Mr. Finlay, Mrs. D'Angelo, Mr. Inglis and Mr. Reid, as well as with the support of Assistant Housemasters Mr. Stewart, Mr. Tsioros and our "Mac Mom" Resident Don Ms. Ossenkopp were able to provide an environment that was nurturing and caring, and teach values and issues in a responsible and appropriate manner to Mac House students. As well, thank you to all Middle School Study teachers, Mrs. Shields and Ms. Grossi for providing help and guidance during the important 'study prep' time. I am deeply thankful and grateful for all their hard work and dedication to the boys of Mac House. Not only was the House supervised by our excellent Duty Team, it was also an environment for our older House Captain students to act as big brothers to our younger students. The job of a House Captain is 24/7 - imagine living, working and playing in an environment surrounded by young and highly energetic grade 6, 7 and 8s! Thanks to all our House Captains (especially Tomi Jun who helped out for two terms!) and our two Heads of House, Jamie Lawson and Jean-Simon Bourque for being great role models and leaders. In addition, I'd like to thank our Mac House Ladies Guild Coordinator Mrs. Housser, as well as Mrs. Poirier-MacIver, Mrs. Chanadi, Mrs. Noble and Mrs. Giroux for helping out in Mac House on a regular basis. The Birthday Bashes were a blast! Finally, I'd like to thank Mr. Tsioros for being there and for serving the boys of Mac House for the past seven years as Assistant Housemaster. I wish him and his family all the best! Mr. Tsioros and his family have recently purchased their own home in Aurora. We welcome Mr. Nicholas Day to assume the position of Assistant Housemaster in Macdonald House in September.

The addition of the fire doors (restricting travel between the upper school houses), the network shutdown at midnight, the ongoing construction and many more minor changes were not well received by returning students. As well, an ever-increasing day population continued to put stress on the boarding contingent. Despite this, I cannot remember a year where students were as respectful, conscientious and friendly. Through all of our mistakes and poor judgements, these things remained constant.

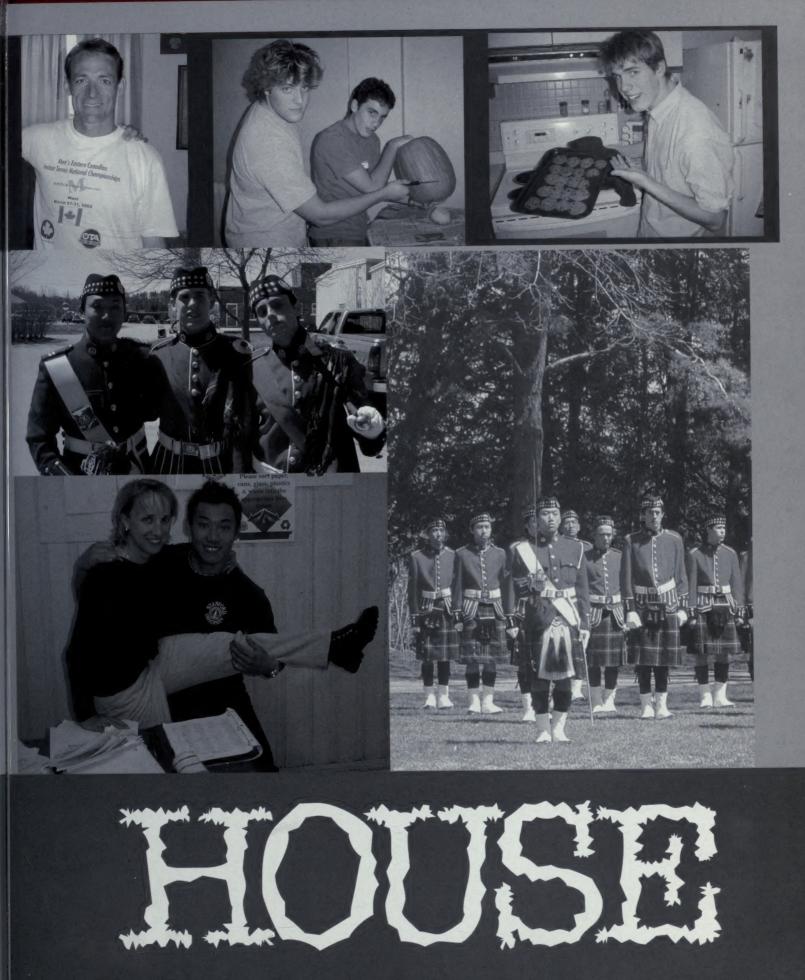

Assistant Housemaster, Keith Ramon, added an enormous amount to the life and tone of the house. It is probably not a coincidence that student behaviour was as good. Thanks in part to the duty team and the graduating Heads of House, Jae Hee Lee, Geoff Delean and Soung Hun Lee, we managed the highest academic average among the boarding houses and closed the gap against the day houses. Many other students also set a high standard in terms of comportment including Jason Lau who was the winner of the Sifton Award for his contribution to school spirit and house activities. Jose Uribe was a big brother to a wonderful group of Mexicans who enriched so much the life of Sifton and the school. Our best wishes to these guys and all others who move on to different places next fall. Nearly half of the students in Sifton will be new to the house next year. With leaders like Head Prefect, Faisal Ratansi, soon to be Prefect Tomi Jun, Head of House Eugene Ryu, and Assistant Heads of House Matt Middleton, and Andre Fernandez, the new members will be well received and fit in nicely with the veterans.

It is with great sadness that my wife, children, and I leave Sifton House. We are extremely grateful to all the student who so richly touched our lives over the past six years. You cannot imagine how fortunate we feel to have lived among so many wonderful people.

This year has marked a turning point for Memorial House in every area of school life. Our house has always been a home away from home. In other words it's the second best place to live! This year Memorial surpassed any level we reached in the past thanks to all those who were part of this house. We had a great mix of athletes, musicians, scholars, actors and leaders as well as a wide range of culture and all round strong house spirit. Together we achieved The Best Company Award, secured a strong second at Track and Field Day, produced some of the best after study snacks/ meals in the kitchen, enjoyed the best of the Perrier's backyard BBQ's, The Award for Best Chapel Attendance which we held for a day, the most mathematical house thanks to the Math Den, success of the HUNT for Eric "the man" Davies, and we also acquired a higher sense of fashion this year with the release of a great looking line of Memorial clothing. We owe many things to the two who make this house home and we thank Mr. and Mrs. Perrier for everything they have done. They make Memorial house feel like an extension of their own home. We were able to show our gratitude this year with a beautiful canoe that will forever remind them of how much they mean to us. As a Head of House I felt honoured to lead Memorial and those that lived in the house. I will never forget the memories that many of us shared from the kitchen, TV room, house meetings and hall ways. It was an amazing year! Thanks to everyone!!!!!

Lead by our two able head's of House, David Nudds and Allan Bean, Ramsey was beaten by only one other house for the Housser trophy for clan competitions in the Upper School this year. This alone is indicative of the success of the house members in the classroom, on the sport's field and in the many different co-curricular activities that were pursued. With many pizza lunches, barbeques, Tim-bits as well as some friendly rivalry with outer day houses, many memories will leave with this large graduating class as they make room for others to step into their place. Best of luck in all of your future endeavors and thanks for a great year! Jamie Inglis Esq.

Laidlaw House, the defending Houser Trophy winner as best house the last two years, struggled this year in maintaining it's ranking. Never the less Laidlaw had a solid year with the majority of it's members involved most school team, clubs and dramatic productions. Lead by Co-heads of House, Stephen Tompson and Brian Harvey, the house enjoyed numerous pizza lunches and "Tim-Bit' Wednesdays. much to the envy of other houses. As well, many members of the house maintained it's commitment to the ideals of team work, dedication and obligation. Returning members look forward to regaining the number one status to the house. To those who have graduated, good luck to you and your new endeavours...thanks for your efforts on behalf of Laidlaw House.

YEARS of CLIMBURG THE STRUES I climbed the CN Tower In: 16 MINS. & 05 SECS.

GIT

tom its humble beginnings, Community Service at St. Andrew's has been increasing steadily year after year. Each successive year the college takes on more and more opportunities to involve itself in the surrounding community. This year the Community Service Council consisted of fifteen extremely capable and dedicated members who met every week to organize and plan the volunteer projects for S.A.C. The group of students was split up into two distinct sects: Communication & Advertising. The Communication portion was responsible for the organization of individual events for the college. The Advertising portion was responsible for the Newsletter, posters, and the website. More ordjects were taken on and successfully completed this past academic year than ever before. Instilled this year was the Volunteer-Term program, in which students who were taking the term off sports could dedicate their spare time to community service. Another new endeavor this year was the C.S. Newsletter, used to inform the school about past and upcoming events, and interviews with current valuable volunteers. The core groups of community service projects were taken on also, such as trips to the Blood Donor clinic, Food Drive, park clean-ups, CN Tower Climb, ushering and Gift-Wrapping. The entire graduating class was also able to achieve the minimum requirement of hours to graduate 40, with many students going far beyond the expected by attaining their new 200 hour pins.

The council would like to thank all those that chose to participate and chaperone in the events throughout the year. Without you they, of course, would not have been possible. Thanks should also be extended to Reverend Roffey, who chose to take time out of his hectic schedule to assist the council this year with Middle School and Statistics. Thank you Mrs. Pries, who keeps community service on track. The council will be saying goodbye this year to graduating students: Soung-Hun Lee, David Charlebois, Jamie Lawson, Brian Harvey, Joseph Leung, Treasurer Geoffrey Delean, Advertising Co. Mike Lin, Vice President Jason Lau, and President Nick Dadson. Congratulations to all those selected to be on the council next year including: Christian Thorne, Jason Kim, Chang Boo, Aldie Sung, Greg Vandemark, Christopher Simpson, James McArthur and Joseph Ghobrial with returning member Imran Gulamani. The chosen executive for the upcoming year consists of President Zameer Velji-Pirani, Vice President Justin Wong, and Secretary Jay Smith. Make sure to visit our improved Community Service website: 'kilby.sac.on.ca/activitiesclubs/comservice'.

ATHLETIC

The purpose of the St. Andrew's College Student Outreach Committee is to encourage civic responsibility and a commitment to helping others. This complements the school's mission to help nurture "the complete man, the well-rounded citizen".

The lesser publicized, but perhaps even more valuable secondary purpose of the committee, is to offer a forum for the development of student leadership skills. Committee members coordinate four major events and numerous smaller activities each year. It is through their enthusiasm and energy that other students are inspired to get involved in charity fundraising.

In the 2002/2003 school year, the students of S.A.C. have already raised in excess of $18,000 for such charities as the Terry Fox Foundation, United Way, Ontario Special Olympics, the Nelson Mandela Children's Fund, Dr. Graham's Homes and World Vision.

As staff facilitator for the Outreach Committee, one of my greatest joys is to be able to watch the efforts of some remarkable student leaders come to fruition on event days. There are 15 members on the committee this year, each of whom has demonstrated character, integrity and a keen sense of responsibility in their work with Outreach. Patrick McGrath (Co-president) and Alex McNabb (Advertising Coordinator) were the driving forces behind the 5th annual charity coffee house in February which turned out to be the most successful one yet. Jarryd Stock (Co-president) and Sebastien Manigat (O.A.2.) coordinated the 4th annual staff/student basketball game in March. (Once again, the staff team won!) Adam Parent (Co-president) organized a raffle held at the same time which raised almost $1200. Although Adam did much of the organization for this raffle, it would not have been possible without the efforts of Taylor Walker (Grade 8), Matthew Suddaby (Grade 9), Jared Leslie (Grade 10) and Brendon McCullough (Treasurer) in gathering prizes. The 3rd annual 30 Hour Famine for World Vision was held in April under the direction of Faisal Ratansi (Secretary) and Bradley Downey (Grade 12). With over 100 participants, this was the largest famine thus far at S.A.C. A new initiative this year, the brainchild of Joel Ford (O.A.C.), was the monthly sale of Krispy Kreme doughnuts. Thanks to Joel's creative idea and ongoing initiative, sales have resulted in almost $1500 charitable profit over the past six months. The remaining committee members: Nick Leslie (Grade 9), Ryan Bryce (Grade 10), Matthew Gnyp (Grade 11), and Jason Kim (Grade 11) have also proven their value many times over in the support they have provided to all of these endeavours.

This year's Outreach successes are without a doubt, a function of the leadership, commitment, vision and hard work of the exceptional young men comprising the committee.

Mark Service

The Christian Fellowship this year was quite productive in their events. Introducing the M.A.P. program to chapel, the students brought a new twist to the morning services and shared their views on life and spiritual matters. One of these events involved DJ Lynn who rocked the house with his beats and the meaningful messages of the contemporary songs. Several students were introduced to Christ, some for the first time, through such an event. The fellowship in general carried on its tradition of having fun and learning more about spiritual living as well as fellowshiping with one another. There was growth both in bumbers and in spirit this year. Special thank you to Rev. Roffey for all his help and to the leaders and grads, Mark Cheng, Michael Lin, Tyler Smith, Paul Tsai, Jason Lau for all their support and guidance. Good luck and God bless in the future.

Christian Felowship Good luck new leaders next year! Calvin Lam and Braden King!!

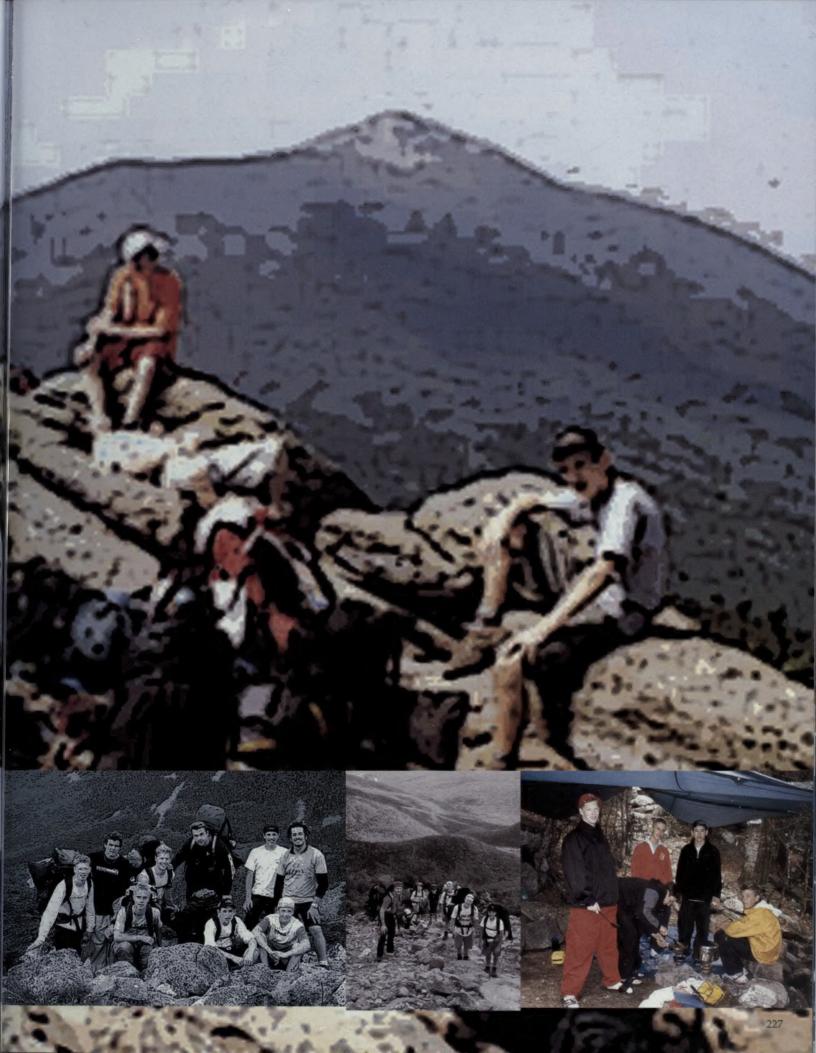

BAT  Congratulations to all those who competed and represented St. Andrew's in the debating competitions.

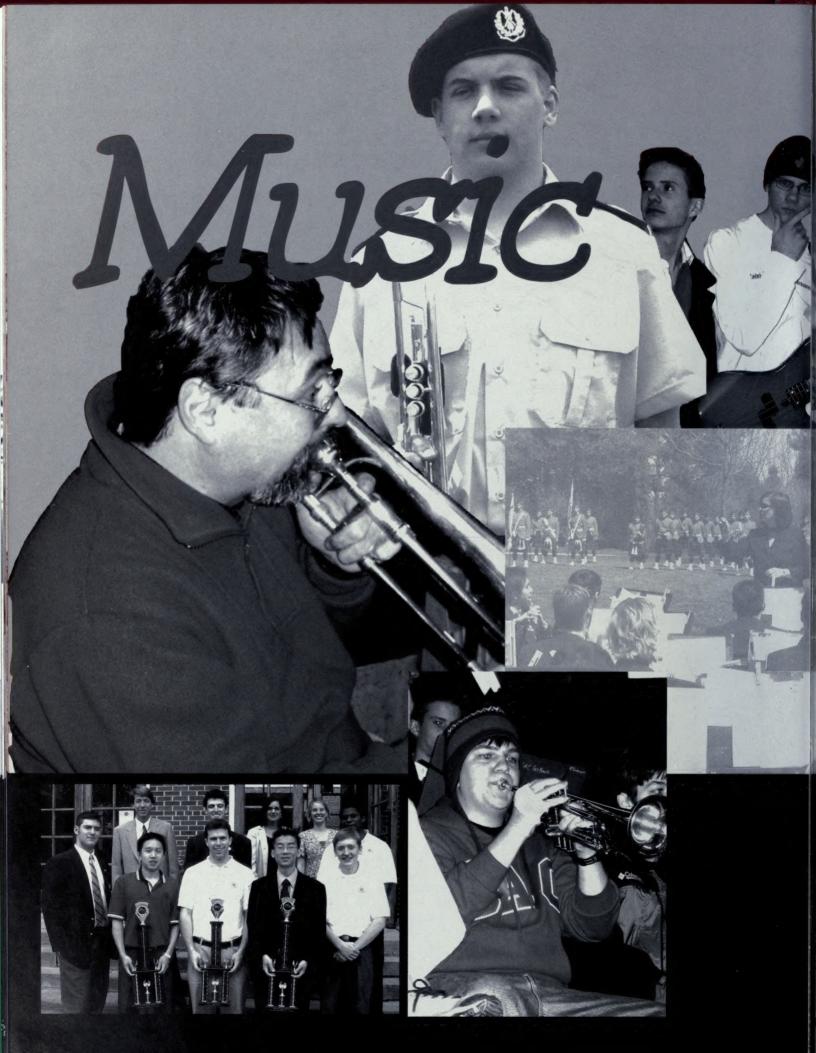

Many thanks to Mr. Daniel B. Reid for his coaching and guidance. Thanks also go to the Debating Executives for all their hard work and what they have done for the society.

We wish the graduating debaters, best of luck in the future and we look forward to another eventful year of debating next year.

Knowledge - Brandon McNally

I hold the knowledge, with which I have, I stare at it, as a poor child does a dime, Unknowing of the vast wealth in the world, Quite happy to stare within its surface, Yet when that dime looses its shine, I'm forced to look deeper than before, See past the surface and to find nothing, And as the children have parents, I have wise men to guide me, And as the parents with a smile Take the dime from the youth, It startles the youth and they fight They fight for what's theirs lust as I fought for my knowledge, But the father takes the dime and gives, They give a bill a piece of paper, The child sees only the lack of shine Soon though he sees the pictures And the words 'In God We Trust' They see the light They learn as well They thank he who gave the dollar As I thank he who created knowledge

Life Stories - Justin Wong

Unforgettable, equivocal, arbitrary, and totally rational and irrational all together Yet it all comes to play whether we like it or not At the street corner, the coffee bar, the movie theatre, and the quaint boutique. Habitual stories of predilection, antagonism, and love Fill our schedules so much so, that we overlook reading them Esoteric stories are transients, forever searching for places to do its work Simple tales are abundant, and will eternally come and go So what makes a textbook story? That of complexity and simplicity attached to the same spine? No, there are no guidlines But only in the hands of a true virtuoso can one justly create works worthy of a god.

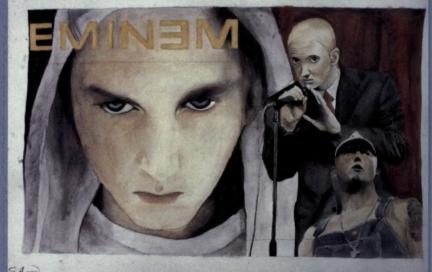

This fables virtuoso is life and we are all subordinates in this whimsical tale of our existence.

Painting - Michael Lin

As I paint your face I feel like I'm touching you As I paint your eyes You see Every stroke of the brush I put my life into you Each dab of pigment A breathe of air As I create you on my canvas Our souls begin to fuse I am, we are, one, not two You are me and I am you, Dream - Derek Toms (Based on "I, karus" by Alden Nowlan)

Once, it was easy. There was nothing I couldn't hve, go, be. Escape was always there, within reach. Monotonous greys transformed into psychedelic reds, yellow and blues; Concrete to wildflowers. Boring walls to exotic locales, I was free.

Secluded, I am half, Together, I am one. None know you exist for trapped inside this outer shell we, both reside, persist.

My alter ego and me, the antithesis to all my deeds. What would be of such a life, if you, in fact, were me?

Everlasting - Jonathan Mackenzie

Legions of people walking All in a perfect line Not one of them knowing where they're going to

Unconciously wrought with hopes and desires Slowly they drift while the world conspires You know we know what you're going through What you're going through This is a war but one of a kind No bombs no soldiers Only deception you'll find You want, you see, but you'll never touch me

Mind's eye is cloudy grey What do the papers say So blind and so naive I will make you believe

Prize Day 2003

The 104th edition of Prize Day at St. Andrew's College is dedicated to Justin Scott, Class of 1998, who died tragically earlier this year after a car accident in his native Bahamas.

We would like to thank everyone for their patience during the past twelve months, a period marked by the most complex and comprehensive building program in the history of St. Andrew's College. Faculty and their families, staff, parents, students, neighbours, and visitors to the school have all been inconvenienced by the construction. As the black, red and white signs around the campus indicate, we do apologize for the disruption you have incurred this year. By the time the students return to the campus in September, all projects will be finished and we are confident that the Andrean community will be thrilled with the finished product.

The Class of 2003 has fared well with 100% of students being offered places to university and/or college! The total amount of scholarship funds awarded were $1,092,000 with more offers coming every day. Some of the more notable scholarships include Alex McNabb, awarded the President's Scholarship from the University of Guelph and major U.S. scholarships and bursaries awarded to Alex Camargo, Derrick Kocik, Sebastien Manigat, J.P. Suddaby, Alex Tanton, Jesse Tipping, and Derek Toms. Our top student of the Class of 2003, Soung Hun Lee, turned down the Dean's Scholarship to Cornell to accept a place at Stanford University in California. Other offers to prestigious programs in the U.S. have been accepted by Mark Cheng, Jason Lau, Jae Hee Lee, Joseph Leung, Ryan Lo, and Patrick McGrath. Forty-two percent of the class will be attending universities in Ontario, 14% in the Maritimes and 7% in Quebec. There will be lots of red leather jackets on the Dalhousie, Mt. Allison, and McGill campuses. Five students will be studying in Western Canada and two students will travel to the U.K. to continue their studies. Seventy students, out of 138 in the grade 12 and 13 class, graduate with an average over 80%. Thirty-four of these boys have been at S.A.C. since Grade 7. A very impressive record!

This year, out of S.A.C.'s 540 students, there were 56 school teams in 22 different sports, and highlights included: 10 CISAA Championship teams, two national Championship teams, 11 CISAA Finalist teams, exceptional OFSAA champion swimmers, Alpine skiers and S.A.C.'s own Donovan Bailey - J.P. Suddaby. We won't soon forget the intensity and desire for a football win of players David Amadori, Michael Tzimas and Dave Banwell, Andrew Douglas's skill on the bagpipes, Michael Lin's amazing artistic ability, Stuart Manchee's acting, Jarryd Stock's voice, J. P. Suddaby's gazelle-like speed and agility, Scott Simmons' grace in the pool, Soung Hun Lee's intellect, Hugh Dowell's uniqueness, and Stephen Thompson's S.A.C. bus. Neither will we soon forget the Cadet Corps' superb 98th year in existence - stellar performances at the Church Parade, the two Inspections and Cadets in Concert, the award winning Pipes & Drums band and their once-in-a-lifetime CD production Quit Ye Like Men, the award-winning Wind Ensemble, Concert Band, Jazz Band and Middle School Band, the first ever Battlefields Study Trip to the graves of fallen Andreans from the Great Wars, the Grade 10 exchange to France and French immersion trip to St. Donat, the many achievements of our mathematicians and debaters, the Summit Writing Society's first Literary Journal entitled Legacy (with special thanks to Mrs. Tilda Robson, Derek Toms and Michael Lin), Mr. Scoular's magnificent production of Oklahoma, Fraser Cowell and Carrie Hughes-McGuinness' Chekhov Shorts and who can forget FOCUS?

Prize Days at S.A.C. are huge undertakings. Gregory Dominato, Marie Pilieci, Jen Kearney, Gayle Petri, Edna Collins and Kim Peyman have been preparing for this special day for months. Special thanks to Klaus Griese, Paul Hodgson, Rodger Routledge and the rest of the maintenance and grounds crew for preparing our beautiful campus. Also, to Mike, Luigi, Kanny and all the kitchen staff for their hard work all year.

Have a safe and enjoyable summer.

Mr. Struan Robertson

It is not often that St. Andrew's graduates one of its offspring twice. In a manner of speaking, that is what has happened here. Struan Robertson 84' has just taken another bow and is off to a position at Pickering College (just to the north of S.A.C. in Newmarket) to become Assistant Head Master in charge of Advancement.

Pickering has indeed chosen well; for at his second graduation we recognize Struan for his Andrean Spirit, Heart, Mind and (yes) Body.

His work in the Admission Office has been one of great purpose, belief and spirit. A happier and more convivial individual one could not hope to meet. He is indeed the epitome of the goodnatured Andrean, willing to take his place on the team.

Half measures are not in Struan's vocabulary. He works and plays with the same energetic zeal. Loyal and true, Struan has not sought attention from others as he focused on the tasks at hand. His generosity with his own time has won him many friends in this community among every constituency. He has worked tirelessly to promote his alma mater with pride. There are many many more who now know about S.A.C. as a result of Struan's efforts than did before he arrived in the Admission Office. A kinder person you will not find!

Struan posseses a keen intellect. He is fluent in our two official languages. He is a master in the process of debating and facilitating communication among people. He enjoys fine writing, music, art, theatre, drink, excellent food (French is best) and the occasional (but it has to be good) cigar. His sense of humour is sharp and quick. He is not a person that one would idly choose to cross verbal swords with.

Well now, the corpus has been left to the last, and shall therefore get the briefest of attention. The tests incumbent in the previous three areas have left things in this department somewhat on the shaky side. True, he is an excellent shot (as those on the Rifle Team can attest). He is a veritable shark in the pool; but ohhhh – that aching back.

It would be quite unethical and misleading for us to graduate one who we claimed to be perfect. We wish our Quaker brethren well, as they perhaps have a shot at continuing the job. From all at S.A.C.-- a huge GANGWHA! Bon Chance Struan!

A.M.Foy

Mr. Aubrey Foy

Aubrey Foy, gifted musician, master, computer expert, housemaster, advisor, civilian cadet instructor, mentor, confidant, visionary, husband, father, and friend. In short (NOT AN ORDINARY MAN)

After 27 years at St. Andrew's College, Aubrey Foy and his wife Daphne depart for their home in the Gatineau. Aubrey will continue to be an Ambassador for St. Andrew's College, assisting the Admission Office in the Ottawa area and travelling on an occasional basis. Aubrey has made many friends at S.A.C. over the years because of his wonderful, caring, nature and we are all the richer for having known and worked with him. He will be missed but not forgotten. Aubrey will now have the time he so richly deserves to devote to his first love which is music. . "From music I came, to music I'll return."

Mrs. Carolyn O'Higgins

Ask anybody who knows her what Carolyn's favourite things might include and you are sure to come up with gardening, the outdoors, and reading. It is also fair to suggest that she is one person whom everyone on campus knows. She will be a much missed person here at S.A.C.

Carolyn began life with us in 'Reception'. She was to be the 'first face' that many would put to S.A.C., and her always welcoming nature and smile were what greeted those coming to our campus for the first time.

After a short stay in Reception, Carolyn joined forces with the Admission Office. The same welcoming nature, her love of people, excellent writing and organizational skills, made it quite apparent that she would be of great value to us in not only greeting new people to our place, but helping them to connect with St. Andrew's College as prospective parents and students.

The approach to this graduating year of 2003 needed some special thought and action. This class was to be substantially larger because the Province of Ontario was eliminating the thirteenth year. Two classes would graduate at once, shifting an enormous load onto our University Guidance Office. The need to have someone who knew the students, who was supremely organized, hard working, and who possessed excellent writing skill made her a 'shoe in' to bring the required additional boost to this area. I know that there are many 2003 grads who owe Ms. O'Higgins thanks for her effective and timely work on their behalf.

As is the case with so many whose interests take them into gardening, Carolyn has a keen eye not just for plants but for people. Her ability to name and discuss plants is also visible in her interest and care for people. She has cultivated many friendships among us. Though she will be missed here, we are certain that we are not forgotten. The beauty of the north has beckoned, and we wish her good health, good reading, and, above all, good gardening.

A.M.Foy

Mr. Matthew Ainsworth

It is with deep regret that the History and Social Sciences Department says goodbye to Matthew Ainsworth. It is no exaggeration to say that Matthew was one of the most knowledgeable and intellectual teachers that the Department has ever had. He distinguished himself early in his academic career, receiving numerous awards as an undergraduate at York University. He won the History Department's Grace Heggie and Lex Mackenzie Scholarships in his final year, was thrice listed for exceptional sessional academic excellence, and graduated Magna Cum Laude on the Dean's Honour Roll in 2000. After completing a Bachelor of Education degree in 2001 he began his teaching career with us in '02-'03.

His unusual breadth of knowledge of history immediately struck us as exceptional and his intellectual imagination and remarkable sense of historical and political judgment deeply enriched the experience of the students whom he taught. Matthew was devoted to academic excellence in his students and he spent many hours above and beyond teaching good principles of historical research and analysis. Above all, his infectious, wry, rather right-wing British humour — which was not always understood by students and faculty alike improved the days of those of us who knew him best.

Beyond the classroom Matthew also enriched the school with his co-curricular interests. Apart from actively participating in the Aurora community by volunteering with youth groups, he coached our Tier II soccer and First Cricket teams. Nor should it be forgotten that Matthew spent hundreds of hours tutoring our senior history students without remuneration for two years before joining the faculty.

Matthew's departure leaves a deep void in the teaching of the humanities and social sciences at our school. He, his wife Karen, and baby daughter Katherine will be deeply missed on the campus. We wish them God-speed and all success in their future endeavours and we sincerely hope that they will return to visit us frequently as a busy life permits.

Ms. Hughes-McGuinness

Let me tell you a little about my friend Carrie, With her by my side, my first year here wasn't scary. Five teaching years under her belt, and I with none, She showed me the ropes, for I had barely begun. You see friends, and colleagues, this woman was born to teach,

From English to Drama to Chapel she even did preach. The boys would say she was so much more, than one who gave out marks,

Because she showed she cared so much, she would often ignite the spark.

The spark I speak of, is one that builds confidence and self-esteem,

Through faith and perseverance, she encourages them to dream.

You could find her on the softball diamond, or on the soccer field,

A coach, mentor and friend, the team's confidence and respect they'd yield.

You could find her in the theatre, both on and behind the stage,

As director, producer, or actor she never lost her page. You could find her on the basketball court, or on the hockey rink,

Competing against the boys, many females would easily shrink.

But you see friends and colleagues, she gave St. Andrew's her all,

And I am sad to say she will not be with us this fall. For she and hubby Jeff, dog Marlowe, and cat Shakespeare,

Are moving to Calgary to Strathcona-Tweedsmere. So let's raise our glass to "Ms. H-M", their Teacher of the Year,

Our thoughts and prayers go with you, fond memories we will hold dear. Robyn O'Hare

Mrs. Marlene Ash

Marlene Ash retired as the Campus Shop Manager in June 2003. Marlene worked in this position for 16 years and made her way to work every day – through snow, sleet, rain and mud - along the path that connects her backyard with the campus grounds. We hope that she will continue to keep the path worn even after her retirement.

Mrs. Ash may have always been passionate about books and she spent much of her working life in bookstores such as the Tallyman Bookstore in Aurora and University bookstores at York and Waterloo, but she was also great at finding the latest fads in pens, pencils and other campus shop fodder.

Her husband Fred helped design and re-design the store layout, as well as other office layouts for administrative offices and Mrs. Ash also had him provide "crowd control" when she was selling books at the beginning of the year.

We wish her all the best in her retirement and thank her for helping so many students over the years with not only what they needed for classes (how could one boy need more than 4 rulers per year??) but also for her support when students just needed someone to talk to.

Ms. Antonia Venters

Ms. Antonia Venters hails from New Brunswick and the east coast is calling her back this year. Mademoiselle Venters will be teaching French in Nova Scotia in September, remaining close to all of her family. During the last 5 years, she coached the swim teams and organized the grade 10 St.Donat trip. She also took groups of students to France during the past 2 March Break holidays. As an active member of the Modern Languages Dept., she worked with colleagues like Joel Fines, Jacquie Beck, Michel Cameron, Martin Duguay and Nicole Ma. Miss Venters has taught in the middle and upper schools for many years and will miss the bonds she has created with her students. She will miss her apartment on campus but looks forward to living the city life next year.

Ms. Tara Prieur

Ms. Tara Prieur enjoyed her year at St. Andrew's as a middle and upper school French teacher. Her trip to St.Donat with the Grade 10's was memorable as she saw her students speak French in a natural setting. Ms.Prieur had fun taking the Grade 7's to Le Papillon, a french restaurant in Toronto as part of their food unit. Mademoiselle Prieur will be missed next year.

Ms. Lisa Picerno

It is hard to believe that 6 years have bassed since Lisa Picerno arrived at St. Andrew's, ready to take on her first teaching job! Well, in those years she has certainly accomplished a lot. As a French and Spanish teacher, soccer and squash coach, chaperone on school trips to Quebec, Ottawa, Spain and Italy, advisor, duty master in Flavelle House, and Modern Languages Department Head, Ms. Picerno has made many contributions to the Andrean community and has touched the hearts of many students, faculty and staff, and parents. We would like to thank her very much for everything she has done at St. Andrew's, and wish her all the best in the future! Good luck! Bonne chance!

Mr. Paul Bedard

In retrospect, Paul Bedard has packed a great deal into his seven years as a member of the faculty at St. Andrew's College. Reflecting upon his career one quickly realizes how much he has added to the vitality and well-being of our school community. As a former student (1972-1979), St. Andrew's was certainly not new to Paul when he arrived in September 1996 to teach French and Physical Education. What he brought with him was the characteristics of a true Andrean-respect, loyalty, and the willingness to get involved. In 1997 he took on the additional responsibilities of Housemaster of Sifton House and Director of Athletics. Though a great burden he handled these two roles, as well as coaching and teaching, admirably for two years. From September, 1999 he concentrated his efforts on coaching, teaching, and Housemastering.

A fine and well recognized sportsman he showed a tremendous knack in getting the best out of his student athletes. He could teach the skills but his understanding and sensitivity to their feelings allowed him to connect perfectly with his players. This is not surprising for Paul's very nature is that of a true gentleman, hugely compassionate, supportive, and of the highest integrity.

Bringing the CISAA Hockey Championship to St. Andrew's in 2001, after an 18 year absence, by defeating UCC on their ice was a notable accomplishment. Paul very humbly took this in stride passing off credit to all but himself. The same is true when he has won tennis titles at the Provincial and National levels. He is not adverse to breaking new ground as he was the force behind St. Andrew's venture into competitive baseball this past spring.

I am an admirer of Paul's inner strength and find him a pleasure to be with. He moves on to fill the role of Director of Athletics at St. Thomas of Villanova College, a relatively new and rapidly growing school. We wish him well. He has touched the lives of many young men at St. Andrew's and will not be forgotten. But his work is not over as he will continue to guide and influence young people.
